Wilton Resident Has Some Old Documents

May 19, 1933.

Ross Peters Owns Deed of 1828 and Other Papers of Later Date

WILTON, May 19—Ross Peters of Wilton, has in his possession numerous old documents which he prizes very highly, and the Whig-Standard had the opportunity of looking over these documents on Thursday morning. There are in all about seven valuable papers, and time has made an imprint as they are very fragile, due to old age.

One of the documents is a deed which was drawn up in 1840 and was signed by Joseph Burley and John Peters. There are two deeds of transfer and are dated 1828. The names appearing on the documents are Miller Fish and N. Parrott. These men were gazetted privates in the Flank Company of the First Regiment of the Addington Militia. Ontario was then called the province of Upper Canada. There is also a document called a sale of a tract of land dated September 1849 and signed Sid Warner to John Peters. The Warners were one of the best known families in Wilton many years ago.

Mr. Peters also has in his possession a copy of the Kingston British Whig dated 1879, and among the valuable possessions

is a two-dollar bill, marked in shillings as well, and must be considerably over 100 years old.

Only Shown Once In Fifty Years

Holy Coat of Christ Exhibited in the Trier Cathedral in Germany

TRIER, Germany — One of the most valuable religious relics in the world — the Holy Coat of Christ — is to be brought into daylight again and exhibited to Pilgrims at Trier Cathedral in Germany in three months' time.

This showing of the "coat without seam," which the soldiers "forbore to rend" and for which they cast lots at the Crucifixion, is part of the "Holy Year" now being celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church. It is the first showing for 42 years.

The showing of the coat is an historical event, for in the last four hundred years the relic has been viewed only five times.

The public exhibition of the Holy Coat will open on July 23 and continue to September 3, and in those six weeks over two million people are expected to travel to Trier from all over the world. Pilgrims from Ireland, England, and America will make the journey, and the German railways have already arranged special trains and tours.

Deeds for all the lots shown above were issued in 1802 and 1803. This indicates that these persons were in possession of the lands before the deeds were issued. Before that time all land was held by virtue of location tickets, so these families may have been in possession from 1795, or before. It is interesting to note the proximity of the Peters and Parry families, as Samuel, Jr., and John married Parry sisters. The known children of this family are:

1. Samuel, born in 1770; died 15 June, 1853; married 16 August, 1795, at St. John's Anglican Church, Bath, to Elizabeth, daughter of William Parry, a Loyalist. Witnesses were Eli Peters, etc. The land books of Ontario show that she drew 200 acres of land as the daughter of a Loyalist by an Order-in-Council dated 12 July, 1798. Samuel is said to have married a second time to Lovisa Burley.
2. Joseph, born 22 Oct., 1772; died 19 May, 1841; married 6 July, 1795, at St. John's Anglican Church, Bath, to Dorcas Watchman, nee Snider, daughter of Marcus and Elizabeth Snider, Loyalists. Witnesses were his brother, Samuel Peters, and Elizabeth Parry, Samuel's future wife. Dorcas was born 7 Sept., 1779. She drew 200 acres of land as daughter of a Loyalist by Order-in-Council dated 12 July, 1798. Joseph is said to have married, secondly, Lucinda Kettles.
3. ~~Samuel~~ Eli, born 25 Sept., 1774; died 26 Feb., 1846; his will was probated 8 April, 1846; married Phoebe Babcock, who was born 17 Nov., 1785, and died 15 Jan., 1837. There is no record of her parentage, although there were several Loyalist Babcocks who settled in this region.
4. John, born 1776; married in Feb., 1809, Easter Parry, sister of Elizabeth (see above). Easter drew 200 acres of land as daughter of a Loyalist by Order-in-Council dated 16 Feb., 1811.

Most of the dates supplied above are taken from family notes and may be taken as correct. These notes, unfortunately, include the two girls who I have included in the family of Joseph of Fredericksburgh. These notes take it that there was a sister of these ~~four~~ four brothers, namely Hulda, who is said to have married James Burley. Of this I have no evidence.

There is an interesting interpretation to be gained from the Census of New York, 1790. A careful review of all persons by name of Peters shows but three named Samuel. The first, of Half Moon Town, Albany County, is mentioned with two females, likely wife and daughter, no sons. The second Samuel, of North Hempstead Town, Queen's County, had a wife and a slave. The third, of Otsego Town, Montgomery County, had in his family 3 males over 16 yrs. of age, 2 males under sixteen, and one female. This would be Samuel, Sr., his wife, two sons over sixteen, and two sons under sixteen, as follows:

Samuel.

Mrs. Samuel

Samuel, aged 20 yrs.

Joseph, aged 18 yrs.

Eli, aged 16, or a few months under.

John, aged 14.

This would conform to information supplied by the family, and used in the above statistics. This information goes on to state that the parents of these four sons were

Samuel, born in Hebron, Conn. (as you say, in 1750), as was his wife, Hulda Young. Do you have any documentary proof of this assertion? I have never looked up the records of Hebron, so I cannot confirm or deny this statement. The history of the Peters Family, as far as I know, has nothing to confirm that there was a Samuel, of Hebron, born in 1750. This history states as follows, regarding the Joseph Peters, who is claimed to be the father of your Samuel:

IV 5.--Joseph (son of John Peters and Mary Marks), born at Hebron, Conn., Aug. 20, 1726; died at Chatham, Conn., Jan. 21, 1761; married Jan. 14, 1748, to Deborah Burchard. (Listed under 'Lost Tribes.'). (My informant did not carry the family of Joseph beyond this).

A reply to a query in the Hartford Times, Nov. 25, 1944, quotes the following from "Peters of New England," by E. F. & E. B. Peters, 1903, pages 307, et seq.:

Joseph Peters, the fifth child of John & Mary (Marks) Peters, born Hebron, Aug. 20, 1726; died Chatham, Conn., Jan. 21, 1761; married Hebron, Jan. 14, 1748, Deborah Burchard, had six children:

1. Joseph, born Hebron, Dec. 24, 1748; died young.
2. (not given)
3. ( " " )
4. Joseph, born Colchester, Conn., Jan. 5, 1756; married Hebron, Oct. 1778, Sarah Welles, daughter of Edmund Welles.
5. (not given).
6. ( " " ).

A chart in possession of a local branch of your family contains the following:

Dr. Joseph Peters, born 20 Aug., 1726, at Hebron Toll, Conn., married Deborah Burchard. He was a son of John.

Children:

1. Joseph, married Sarah Welles.
2. Samuel, married Hilda Youngs.
3. Phebe, married George Gates.
4. Susannah, married Hopkins West.
5. Debrah.

Several years ago I corresponded with a Mrs. Mahala Waywell, a descendant of this Peters family. When I questioned the ancestry which she gave for the four brothers, Samuel, Joseph, Eli and John, who settled here, she became disgusted with me, and did not reply. My reason for requiring more definite proof of connection with the Hebron family was that there was a Dutch family of Pieters, long resident in the Hudson Valley. The proof which I sought was that Hilda Youngs was the wife of Samuel Peters, Sr., and that both had been born in Hebron. Also that Samuel, Sr., was son of Joseph Peters and Deborah Burchard. Do you have the answers? If so, then your family would belong to the "Peters of New England," and not to the Dutch Pieters of the Hudson Valley. If you have, I shall be very much interested in it.

Joseph, son of Eli Peters and Phoebe Babcock (see page 2), was born 19 Nov., 1805, and was baptized in Ernesttown 23 Feb., 1806, by Rev. Robert McDowall, Presbyterian Minister. He married Rachael Ball, who was born in 1806, and who died 15 July, 1880. She lies buried in Wilton Cemetery. As the daughter of a Loyalist, she drew 200 acres of land by Order-in-Council dated 7 Feb., 1834.

Rachael Ball was the daughter of Solomon Ball and Esther Walker. Her father, Solomon Ball, was born in 1758, where is not known. He lived in Brattleborough, Vermont, when the Revolution began. He joined the Queen's Loyal Rangers in 1777, and was at the Battle of Bennington. Later in the war he was a soldier in the Loyal Rangers, and was often employed on Secret Service. In 1784 he settled in the neighborhood of Ferrisburgh, Ontario, but later removed to Ernesttown Township. The name of his father is not known, but was likely Jacob. His mother's first name was Deborah. She died and is buried on Amherst Island.

The ancestry of Esther Walker, mother of Rachael Ball, is as follows: (see "The Walkers of the Old Colony.")

The Widow Walker came from England to America before 1643 with three children. She was one of the first settlers in Rehoboth, Mass. Her son,

Philip Walker was a freeman of Rehoboth in 1655. In 1658 he was one of the proprietors of the district of Attleboro, Mass. He married Jane, daughter of Michael Nectalf, of Dedham, about 1654. He died in 1679, and his estate was appraised in October of that year. His second son and third child, Philip Walker, Jr., was born in March, 1661, and died Feb. 17, 1739/40, in his 78th year. He married, in November or December, 1689, Mary Bowen, probably daughter of Richard Bowen. She was buried May 22, 1694. He married, second, Sarah, who died Feb. 6, 1739, in her 68th year. His fifth son and ninth child, by his second wife,

Daniel Walker was born Oct. 10, 1706. He married Jan. 1, 1729/30, Mary daughter of Jasiel and Rebecca Perry. He resided in Coventry, Rhode Island. He was in the British Army at the capture of Quebec in 1759. After the peace, when on his way home to Rhode Island by the overland route by way of Lake Champlain, Vermont and the Connecticut River during the winter, he froze his feet and was forced to stay the winter at what is now Clarendon, Vermont. He liked the country so well that, in 1763, when the Vermont country was opened for settlement, he removed to that place with his children and grandchildren. He died after 1779. His first son, and fifth child,

Daniel Walker, Jr., was born Mar. 11, 1736, at Attleboro. He married, first, about 1756, Jerusha Bates. She died the following year. Daniel married, secondly, in 1757, Mary Young, an English woman, who was the father of his children. Daniel and family accompanied his parents to Vermont. Daniel, in 1777, joined the Queen's Loyal Rangers, and was at the Battle of Bennington. He subsequently became a soldier in the Loyal Rangers, and ultimately settled in Ernesttown Township. He was buried in Ernesttown on July 5, 1795, aged 54. His wife, Mary Young, died in Ernesttown 9th January, 1829, aged 98 years, leaving 62 great grandchildren and 174 great great grandchildren. Early in the Revolution, Daniel Walker was forced to retire to Canada with his regiment. This was in October, 1777. His wife was not allowed to join him until 1781, accompanied by her younger children only. The older boys, Weeden, aged 19, and William, aged 23, were not allowed to leave Vermont, as they were old enough to serve as soldiers. Mary was accompanied by Esther, born 28 March, 1868. She is recorded as the wife of Solomon Ball

Mary, born 23 July, 1770.	in a subsistence list of March,
Daniel, born in 1772.	1783.

There were three distinct Peters families in the district immediately west of Kingston before 1800. The information which I am about to give you is based on contemporary records. Deductions will be made from time to time, but reasons for them will be given. These families are.

1. Lieut. John Peters settled in Fredericksburgh Township in 1784. He was a son of Lieut.-Col. John Peters, the officer commanding the Queen's Loyal Rangers, a Loyalist Regiment recruited in Vermont and Northern New York in 1777. This regiment was decimated at the Battle of Bennington, and its personnel eventually became a part of the Loyal Rangers and Sir John Johnson's Royal Greens. Lieut. Peters settled in Fredericksburgh with his battalion, later removing to the region about Cobourg, Ontario.
2. Joseph Peters, with wife and three children, also settled in Fredericksburgh. His name appears in a Supplementary Loyalist List. He died in Fredericksburgh in 1800, and record of the burial is found in the records of St. Paul's Church in that Township on Oct. 11. On the 2nd October, 1787, he was granted four hundred acres of land in Richmond, an adjacent township, being lots 17 in the 1st and 2nd concessions. On Feb. 23, 1791, the Land Board approved the sale of the second concession lot to Joseph Forsyuar. The 16th Report of the Department of Archives for Ontario, 1920, contains an article on Land Tenure in Ontario, and it uses facsimiles of documents dealing with this property to illustrate. In the transfer of this lot, it is noted that Joseph Peters signed with his mark. The Church of England records show that the three children of Joseph can be accounted for. I believe them to be:
  1. Mary, who married 21 Feb., 1788, at St. John's Church, Bath, Michael Bartley. Both were of Fredericksburgh.
  2. Elizabeth, who married 10 August, 1791, at St. John's Church, Bath, Frederick Keller. Both were of Fredericksburgh. Mary (Peters) Bartley was a witness of this marriage.
  3. John, who, with Betsy Peters, witnessed a Fredericksburgh marriage on August 7, 1791, three days before Betsy married Frederick Keller. John also witnessed a Fredericksburgh marriage on August 5, 1792. This man was assessed in 1808, as of Fredericksburgh Township, where he owned 300 acres of land.
3. A third family settled in Ernesttown Township, next east of Fredericksburgh. This family arrived here before July, 1795, because in that month one of them married. Family history states that the father was Samuel Peters, with sons, Samuel, Jr., Joseph, Eli and John. The only contemporary record of Samuel, Sr., is in the land records of the township. These records, dealing with the sixth concession, are as follows:

Concession 6, lot 26	west half	Samuel Peters, Junior.
	east half	Eli Peters.
27	west half	Peter Parry.
	east half	William Parry.

Peters Family.

Queries by Mrs. Sadie Peters, Sheldon, Iowa.

1. Mormon Archive Chart (which was enclosed in your letter).

This chart, to my mind is erroneous. According to my information, as supplied to you, as attachment to my letter, dated in year 1960, (item 2, p. 1), Elizabeth Peters, who married Frederick Keller 10 Aug., 1791; Mary Peters, who married Michael Bartley 12 Feb., 1788; John Peters.

All three were children of Joseph Peters, who arrived in Fredericksburgh Township shortly after 1784. These three children should be erased from the family of Samuel Peters, Sr.

The three other children, namely

Samuel

Joseph

Eli (also called Elijah?)

are quite definitely are children of Samuel.

2. None of these six Peters children was born in Ontario. In fact, this Province, then called Upper Canada, was NOT settled until 1784. Our first church and land records follow, the former in 1785 and 1787, and the latter in 1784, et seq.

3. The parish records of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Fredericksburgh, supplies the marriage of Elizabeth and Mary, the daughters of Joseph Peters (no known kin) and the name of their brother, John, as a witness. This also gives the burial of their father, Joseph, in 1800. The parish Records of St. John's Anglican Church, Bath, supplies the marriage of Samuel and Joseph Peters, the sons of Samuel Peters, Sr. There is also the record of Eli acting as witness for marriage of his brother, Samuel, as above.

4. The Register maintained by Rev. Robert ~~REWALL~~ McDowall, Dutch Reformed Church, later Presbyterian Church, contains the baptism, Feb. 23, 1806, of Joseph, born 19 Dec., 1805, son of Eli Peters and Phebe Babcock.

Two additional children of Eli and Phebe were baptized, as follows:

Delila, born 2 March, 1808.

Hannah, born 1 July, 1810.

I do not know when Eli and Phebe were married. It should be in a family bible.

5. Samuel Peters, Sr., or children are NOT found in the United Empire Loyalist List.

6. The book on the Peters Family of New England is called "Peters of New England," by J. F. and E. B. Peters, 1903, is evidently the one from which you quoted in your letter. I have never seen this book, but a Mrs. Francisco quoted a good deal from it for me about twenty years ago. Of Joseph Peters, she wrote the following:

Joseph, fifth child of John and Mary (Marks) Peters, born at Hebron, Conn., Aug. 20, 1726; died Chatham Jan. 21, 1761; married Jan. 14, 1748, to Deborah Darchard. (Listed under "Lost Tribes").

I should like to see what is found under "Lost Tribes." I say this because I have two different versions--one furnished by Mrs. Mahala Waywell, and the other copied from the Hartford Times. I shall quote both for you.

- L. Mrs. Waywell's list.

"Dr." Joseph Peters, born 20 Aug., 1726, at Hebron Toll, Conn., married Deborah Darchard. He had a son John.

Children:

1. Joseph, married Sarah Welles.
2. Samuel, married Hulda Youngs.
3. Phebe, married George Gates.
4. Susannah, married Hopkins West.
5. Debrah.

2. The Hartford Times, March 10, 1945, has the following:
Answer to Query A-4479, F. F. W., November 25, 1944.

Quote,

Following from "Peters of New England" by E. F. & E. P. Peters, 1903, pg. 177

Joseph Peters, the fifth child of John and Mary (Marks) Peters, born Hebron, Aug. 20, 1726; died Chatham, Conn., Jan. 21, 1761, married Hebron, Jan. 14, 1748, Deborah Burchard, and had six children:

1. Joseph, born Hebron, Dec. 24, 1748; died young.
- 3.
4. Joseph, born Colchester, Conn., Jan. 5, 1756, married Hebron, Oct., 1778, Sarah Welles.
- 5.

7. The first evidence of the presence of Samuel and Joseph, sons of Samuel, Sr., is their marriages in 1725. This date also shows the presence of Eli, as a witness. It must be assumed that they arrived in Canada very shortly before this year.

The first application for land, in fact, the only ones, up to 1800, for males of this family, are those of Elijah (Eli?) and Samuel, who, on the same day, 12 July, 1798, applied for land as settlers. Photostatic copies of these applications can be obtained from the Public Archives, Ottawa, Canada. They often tell the year of arrival in this Province. In any event, they must have been in the country for one year. These applications might show that an error was made in calling Eli, Elijah.

You may recall, I gave you, in item 3, of my original material, the lots in Ernesttown owned by Samuel, Sen., and children, Eli, Samuel and Joseph Peters.

8. The Census of New York State, 1790, to my mind, gives a very definite lead to the whereabouts of this Peters family shortly after, and possibly during, the Revolution. It is this:

~~Montgomery County~~

Montgomery County, Otsego Town Samuel Peters, with 2 sons over 16
2 sons under 16
1 woman.

To my knowledge of this family, this one fits almost perfectly.

Samuel, father

-----	mother	Sons	Joseph )
			Samuel ) born before 1776
			Eli )
			John? ) born after 1776

What could fit better with the Ernesttown Canadian family? I could suggest the use of a searcher in the State Educational Building, Albany, N. Y. for church records, etc., in this area.

SMITH—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Clarence Stirling Smith, who departed from this life on January 9, 1943.
Just when his days seemed brightest,
Just when his hopes seemed best,
God called him from amongst us,
To his eternal rest.
Sadly missed but God knows best.
—Ever remembered by mother and dad, Myrtle and Sam.

PETERS—In loving memory of our dear mother and father, John Peters, who passed away January 9, 1951, and Catherine Peters, who passed away January 22, 1940.
Time may heal the broken hearted,
Years may make the wound less sore,
But it cannot fill the longing,
For the loved ones gone before.
We shall meet them some glad morning
Resting by the waters fair,
They are waiting for our coming,
In the upper garden there.
—Sadly missed by daughter Bertha, Clara and Grace.

Records of two distinct Peters families are found in the early records of the Kingston-Bay of Quinte region of Ontario. They are:

1. Lieut. John Peters, son of Lieut.-Col. John Peters, the commander of the Queen's Loyal Rangers, a Loyalist unit recruited in Vermont. Lieut. John first settled in Prince Edward County, later removing to the neighborhood of Cobourg, ninety miles west of Bath.
2. A Peters family, consisting of four brothers, Samuel, Joseph, Eli, and John, as well as two or three sisters, Elizabeth, Mary, and, possibly, Huldah. There is no official record of their parents, although the family states that they were Samuel Peters and Huldah Young(s). The earliest local records of this family is 1795, when both Samuel and Joseph were married. This being so, then the family arrived here in that year, or possibly a year or two previously. As has been said before, there is no official records of the parents, other than that supplied by the family. One indication as to whence they came is that found in the Census of 1790 for the State of New York. The name of a Samuel is found in Otsego Town, Montgomery County, with two sons over 16 years of age, two sons under sixteen, and one female. This fits perfectly this family, assuming that the three girls were born in 1790 or later. These children were:

1. Samuel, born in 1770; died 15 June, 1853; married 16 August, 1795, at St. John's Anglican Church, Bath, to Elizabeth Parry, daughter of William Parry, a Loyalist. The Land Books of Ontario show that she drew 200 acres of land as the daughter of a Loyalist by an Order-in-Council, dated 12 July, 1798. Samuel is said to have married a second time to Lovisa Burley.
2. Joseph, born 22 Oct., 1772; died 19 May, 1841, married 6 July, 1795, at St. John's Anglican Church, Bath, to Dorcas Watchman, nee Snider, daughter of Marcus and Elizabeth Snider, Loyalists. Dorcas was born 7 Sept., 1779. She drew 200 acres of land as daughter of a Loyalist by Order-in-Council, dated 12 July, 1798. Joseph is said to have married, secondly, Lucinda Kettles.
3. Eli, born 25 Sept., 1774; died 26 Feb., 1846; his will was probated 8 April, 1846; married Phoebe Babcock, who was born 17 Nov., 1785, and died 15 Jan., 1857. There is no record of her parentage, although there were several Loyalist Babcocks who settled in this region.
4. John, born 1776; married in Feb., 1809, Easter Parry, sister of Elizabeth (see above). Easter drew 200 acres of land as daughter of William Parry, a Loyalist, by Order-in-Council, dated 16 Feb., 1811.
5. Elizabeth, married 10 August, 1791, at St. John's Anglican Church, Bath, to Frederick Keller.
6. Mary, married 21 Feb., 1788, at St. John's Church, Bath, Michael Bartley, a Loyalist. Michael may have brought Mary from New York State for the marriage, and it may have been because of this marriage that the rest of the Peters family came to Canada.
7. Hulda (?), who married (?) James Burley.

- Note: his picture is in the Peters Genealogy. There is a rogueish expression about the corners of his mouth, and one can imagine that he had a lot of fun with brother John, but did not want to hurt him. M.A.F. I quote: "It is said that he sent his brother a man thoroughly at home in the wilds of Vermont, and who gained the confidence of Col. Peters to such an extent that he was chosen to lead the British troops across the state. This agent at once started them on an endless journey, causing them to cross and recross their own tracks, until wearied and bewildered, they lost heart and returned to Canada. Col. John appears never to have suspected this trick of his younger brother's." From Hartford Columbian, May 17, 1845.

I want to add to the record of John Samuel, fifth child of Capt. Lemuel & Annis Shilman Peters, b. Sept. 21, 1772. You will note that he died unmarried. He is buried in St. Peter's churchyard, Hebron, Conn. his own house built 1806 stands next to the church. He was both an M.D. & an L.L.D. He is or was an exceptional man, for he certainly was honored in his own country. As his father was a Tory, all his property had been confiscated. Excerpts from his manuscript giving an account of himself:

"At the age of seven the family finances were so low that he was obliged to work for a neighbor, Joel Horton, where he was employed to take care of children and to do some light work. He worked on farms in the summer and attended school in the winter until he was eighteen; then, for five winters he taught a district school. At the age of twenty he began the study of medicine with Dr(?) Benj. Peters, of Marbletown, N.Y. After reading with him for six months he returned to his school in Hebron. The next summer he read with Dr. Abner Mosely, of Glastonbury, Conn. In Nov., 1793, he went to Philadelphia to attend the anatomical lectures, Drs. Shippen & Wistar, the chemical lectures of Dr. Woodhouse, and the Medical Institute of Dr. Benj. Rush. In March, 1797, he returned to Hebron and in May he travelled up the Conn. river, nearly as far as Canada, looking for a place to settle. He then passed through Vt. to Barre Co., N.Y., visited friends, and returned to Hebron. He says "I had thus spent twenty-four years of my life and all my money. I sat down tired and discouraged. In a few days my neighbor called upon me for medical advice and in a short time I had such professional business as I could do. I continued to practise forty years. In the meantime I was called upon to render my part of service in the social and political societies: school visitors, highway surveyor, selectman, Town clerk, member to Gen. Assembly, State Senator, Lieut.-Governor, Gov. of State." "At the age of 59 I retired from public life and left the practice of physic as soon as I could leave my old friends in the care of others."

I have copied from "Peters of New England" compiled by Edmond Frank Peters who died & Eleanor Bradley Peters (Mrs. Edward McClure Peters) finished for publication.

Published at New York by The Knickerbocker Press, 1903.

Dear sir:

Here, at last, is my reply to your recent letter. It is to be hoped that you have received your money's worth.

As you will see when you review the enclosed papers, there is much confusion in sorting out the Peters family. It is so easy to make a statement without proof, and conclude that the Joseph Peters found in some registry was the one you were looking for, even though you had no proof.

There were in this area three distinct Peters families. The family shown in pages 1 to 5 (in red) was sent to me about 1940 by a Mrs. Francisco of Delavan, Wisc. This was the famous Peters family which settled in New England, with a branch which settled in Hebron. From this branch came Col. John Peters, the Loyalist. This Peters family produced ministers, Bishops, military officers, doctors and lawyers, etc. Col. John Peters, whose name is found on the bottom of page 2, and whose children are listed on page 3, came to Canada with his family about 1778. In 1784, when the war was over, he removed with his family to Nova Scotia. Col. John went to England to plead his case for back military pay. He died there in 1788. His wife and children, except his oldest son John, settled in Cape Breton Island, a part of Nova Scotia. The oldest son, John, remained in Canada, and after marriage, settled about sixty miles west of Bath.

You will note, on page 3, VI 8.-Joseph, b. Montreal, Canada, Nov. 11, 1779; married; children. On page 14, Mrs. Waywell shows him as d. 19-5-1851, with wife, Jemima Smith, d. 19-4-1852. She also shows them as having a daughter, Susannah, born 11-10-1800; d. 2-10-1842, Trest'n, Ont.; married Artemas Millett.

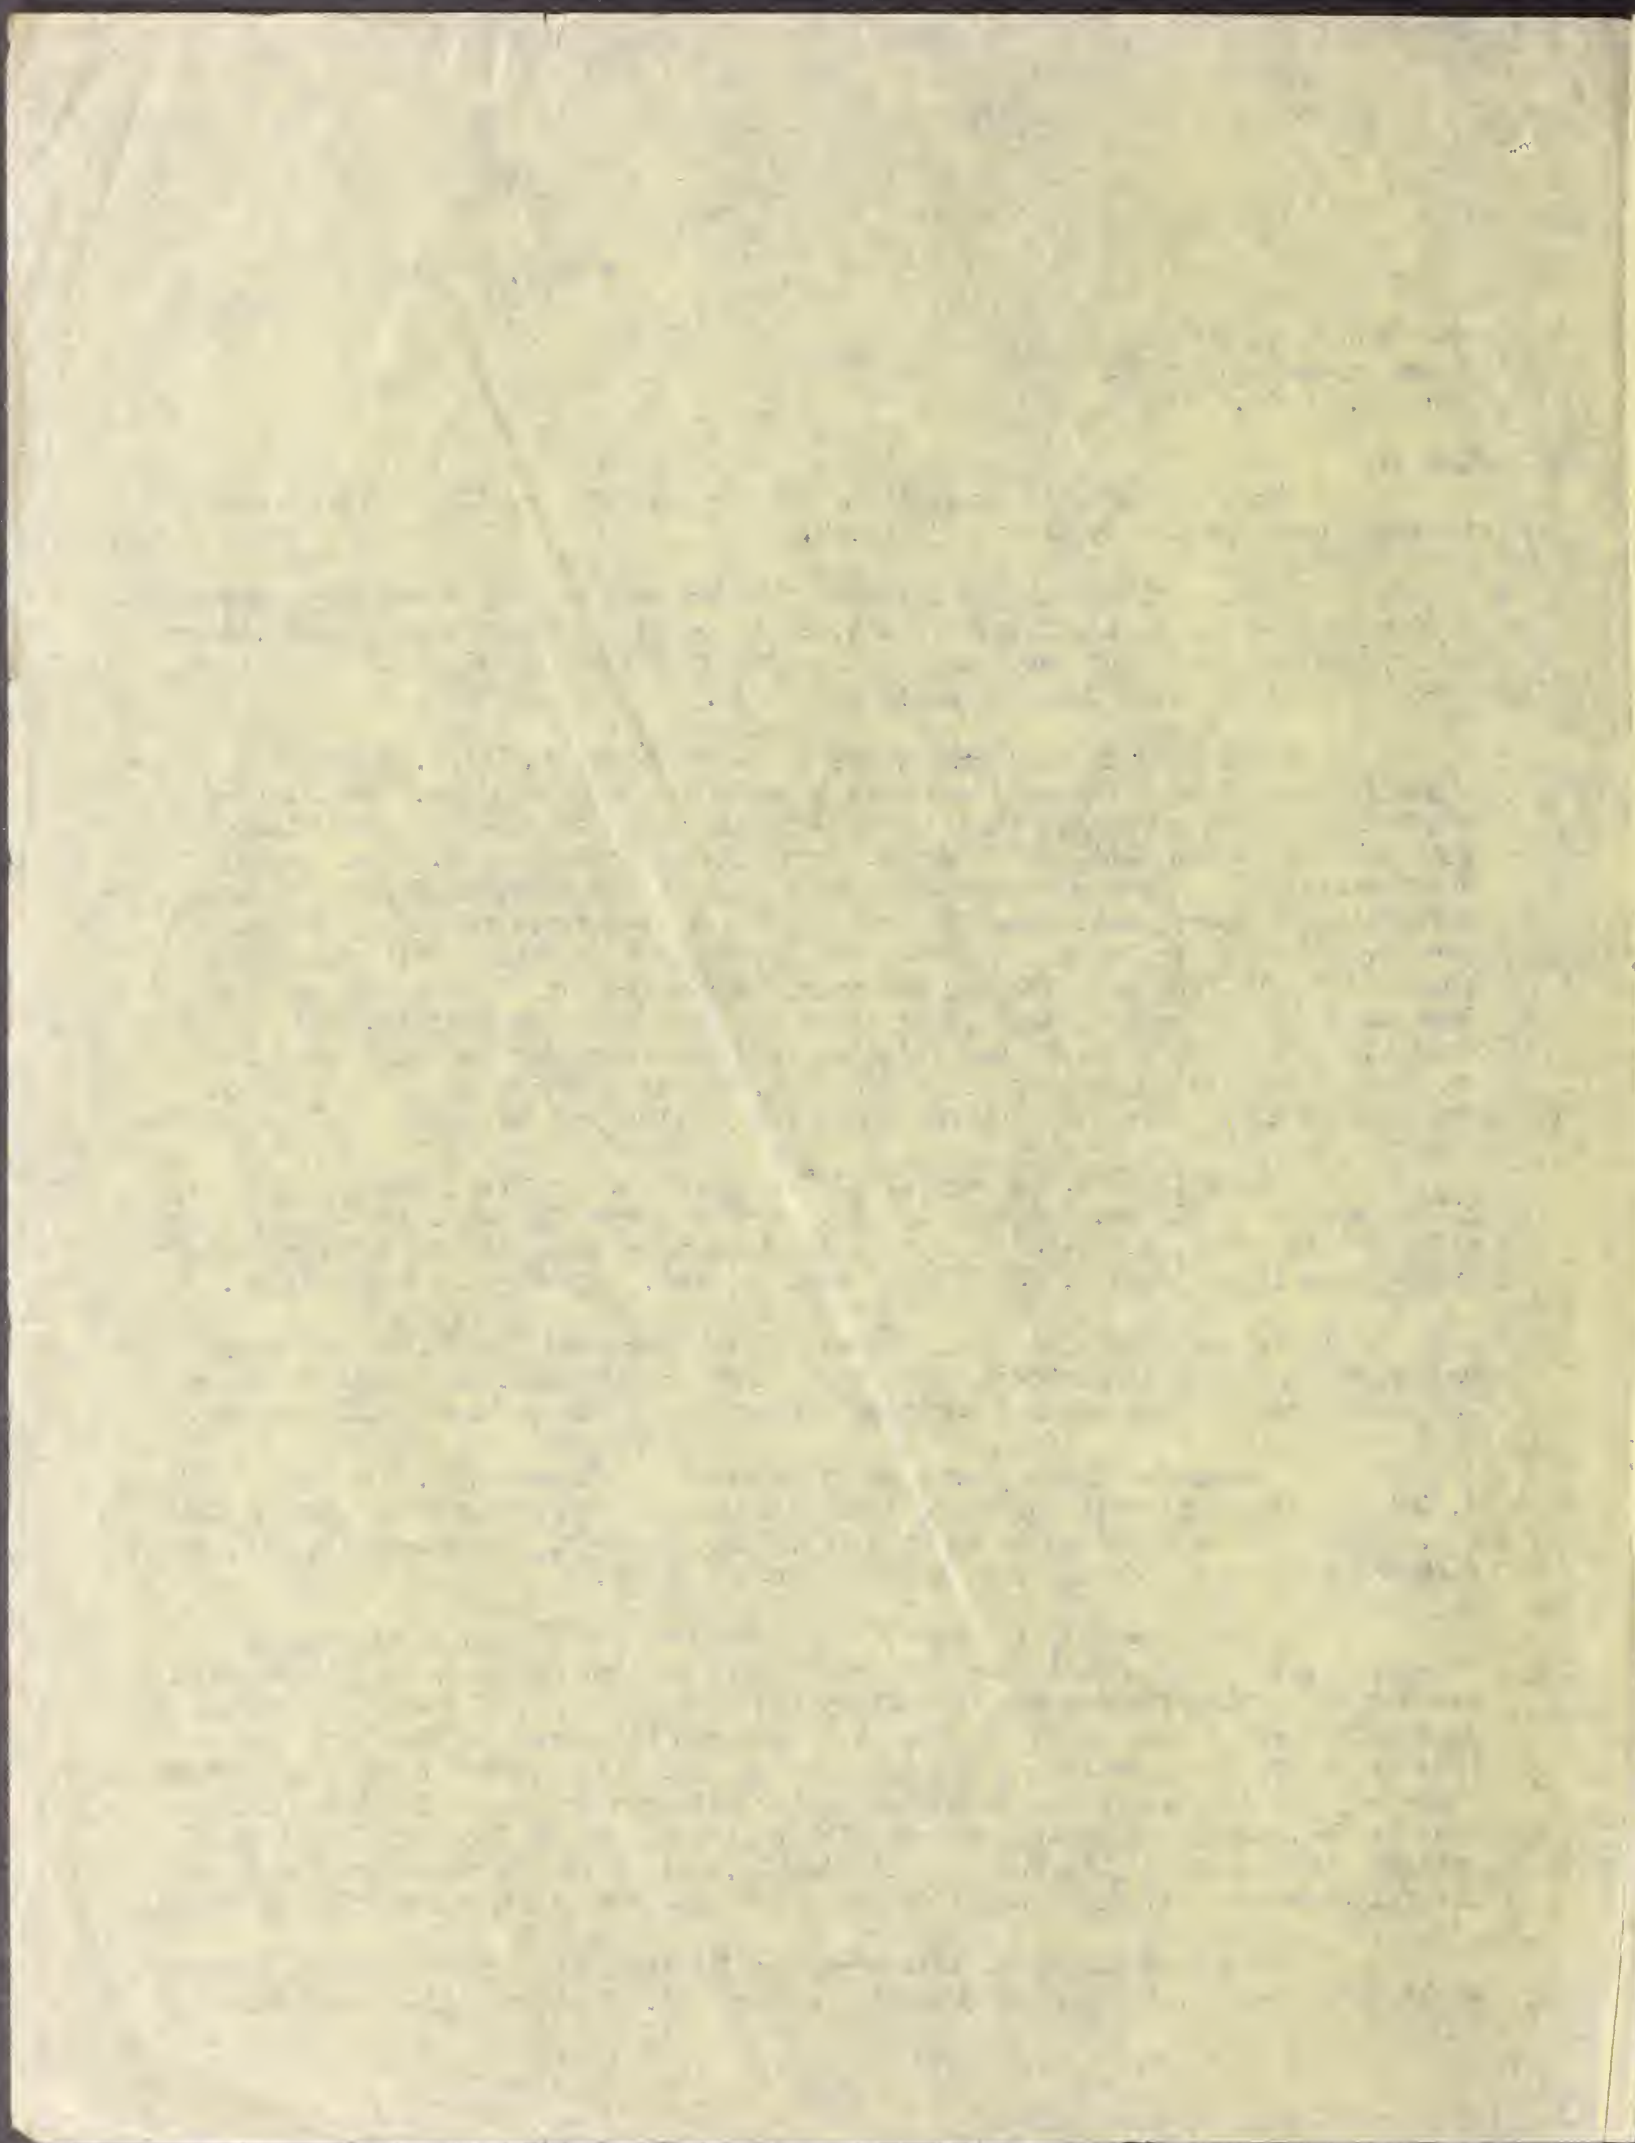

As you will note, Mrs. Waywell shows Susannah's father as the same Joseph who was born in Montreal, and son of Col. John Peters. She fails to prove her statements, merely putting together a chart, as if there was nothing beyond.

As you will note, on page 12, there is a Susannah, b. Oct. 19, 1804; d. Oct. 3, 1840. This list of the children of Joseph Peters and wife, Dorcas Watchman. This list was supplied to me by a Mrs. Mary Grestrix, of Belleville, Ont, about fifteen years ago. I do not know if she is still alive.

Mrs. Waywell, in her search for ancestors, picked on the Joseph Peters, no. IV 5, on page 1, who is listed under the Lost Tribes. This expression meant that nothing further was definitely known about the family of this Joseph. In this regard, please refer to page 11. Here are two items dealing with the Lost Tribes. I have marked a paragraph with an M.B. This gives you what the Peters Genealogy has to give of the family of Joseph Peters and Deborah Durchard. Below that is Mrs. Waywell's interpretation of her list of the children of Joseph and Deborah. She may be right. Who am I to dispute. Still, when I asked her for proof she failed to answer. So, I concluded that her interpretation was wishful thinking.

The Peters family of this area has distinctive characteristics. They are small spare people. Seldom are there any over 5' 6". They are thin and of dark ~~complexion~~ complexion. This description certainly did not fit the family of the other Peters family of this area.

I got into difficulty with Mrs. Waywell for another reason. I had noted an early Dutch family in the Hudson River, New York area, whose surname was Pieters. Gradually, the name became Peters, and there were numerous families of Peters in the New York Census of 1791. One of these families was that of a Joseph, with a wife and three sons under 16, which seemed to fit those who came to this part of Canada. I could be wrong, but the possibility was there.

I note that your name in our local records was spelled Willett, likely an error due to the similarity of W and H, when written out. I found these two items which might mean something to you.

There are many loose ends which might be caught up, but I feel that I have served you well. If there are any uncertainties, let me know.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Hazel M. Kashul, 980 King St., E.,
Gshawa, Ont.

Dear Mrs. Kashul:

I have received your letter and check, with thanks for your appreciation of the efforts some of us make to keep alive the activities of our ancestors.

I debated whether I should send the photocopies of material to you or your daughter. Assuming that you would not be shifting about the country as younger people do, I am forwarding the material to you. I made a trip to Kingston to have the copying done. However, the machine was out of order. Then, it was taken by my daughter to Sapanee, where it was done. I will submit that it is not so well done as I might have wished. I am sorry.

You will note the following

1. A copy of Col. John Peters' narrative regarding his activities in the Revolutionary War. There are nine pages.
2. A chart of the Peters family which had been prepared by a Mrs. Maywell. In the lower left corner of page two you will note Capt. John Peters who married Mary Anne Rogers, daughter of Major James Rogers, commander of the King's Rangers.
3. Contribution on the Peters Family, being a letter, written by Mary A. Francisco, of Delavan, Wisconsin, in 1944. It came to be written in pencil and rather difficult to cypher. I copied part of it by hand with pen. the rest I evidently typed out. This is in seven pages.
4. Three pages, numbered 10, 11, and 12, why I do not know, dealing with your family, for what it is worth.

The Peters Family is mentioned in Chadwick's Ontarian Families. You might well seek this book in a local library. I seem to have made the following notes, in part, from it:

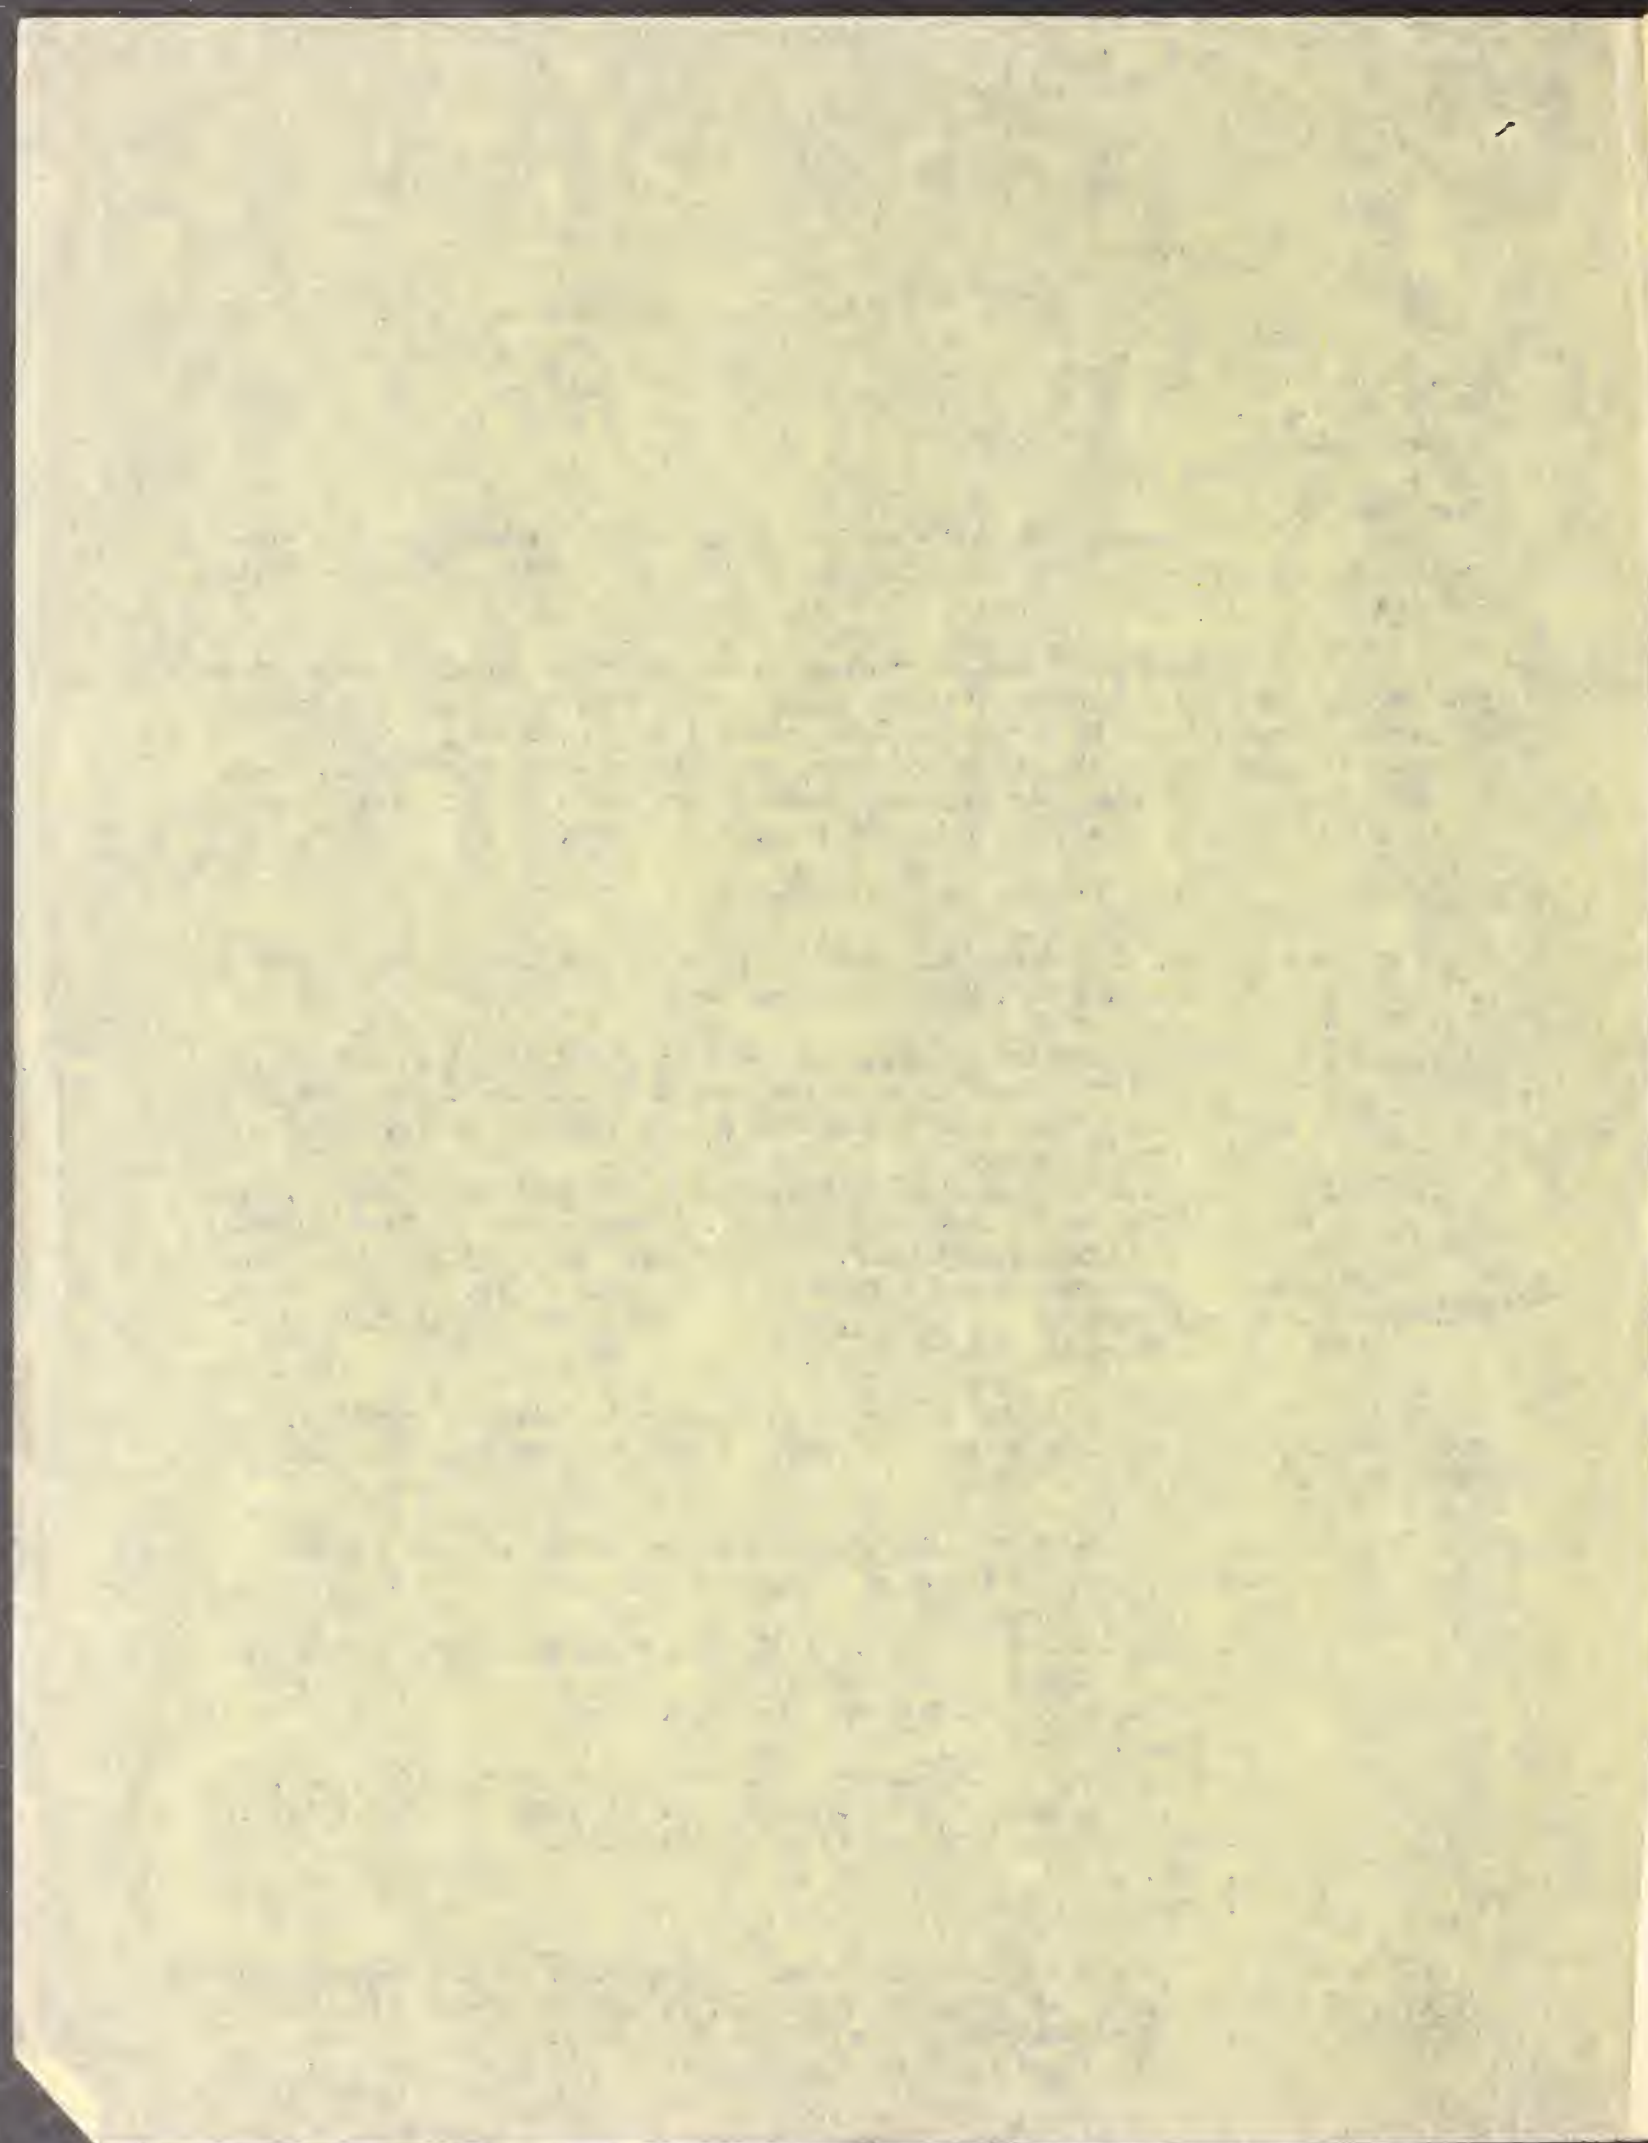

John Peters, Col., Sheriff of Northumberland (a brother of the Bishop of Londonberry, married 18 Feb., 1790, Mary Ann, daughter of Maj. James Rogers, and had issue:

1. John, baptized 22 Feb., 1795. 200 acres by Order-in-Council, dated 20 May, 1790.
2. David, married Elizabeth Morrison.
3. James.
4. Mary Ann, died 1881, aged 93, married to John Coffin, Col. Baptized 3 Dec., 1792. O.-in-Council 2 Dec., 1815.
5. Margaret R., baptized 12 Jan., 1793.
6. Ann.
7. Mary.

In addition, I should add that Col. John Peters, O. C. of the Queen's Loyal Rangers, elected to settle in Cape Breton Island. He removed there with wife and younger children. He died while in England about that time.

Call me if I can be of help.

Dr H. C. Burlingh
Bath, Ontario

Dear Dr Burlingh:

I hope that you have been able to locate Mrs Waywell. I wrote to Mrs Earl Peters of Uxton, Ontario to see if she knew her address but she didn't. She did say that Dorval Peters knew her but I don't know his address. She could give it to you. They also know a Mrs Gordon Struck of Rochester, New York. I wrote to her a few years ago but she didn't answer my letter.

Mrs Earl Peters wrote that this Dorval has a book, "The Life of Hugh Peters" but he won't loan it to anyone.

Maybe you will be able to get some information from one of them even tho I couldn't. I have never met any of them but I think they must be rather odd people except the Earl Peters. I have corresponded with her for some years and I like her.

If you write to either of them I you are more successful than I

Sincerely,

Sadie Peters

Dear Mr. Beerleugh:

In my first letter to you I notice that I did not ask for documentary proof for I assumed you would have the proof of any thing you sent. I did give you the names of my direct line with the names of their wives: as Samuel and Hilda Young, Eli and Phoebe Babcock, Joseph and Rachael Ball.

The Joseph of whom you wrote belongs to another line. My grandfather, Joseph Peters, was born in 1805 and died in 1891 or 92. His son, Philip, was born May 20, 1842. I might be able to get a record of his birth in Kingston as they lived near there.

I have documentary proof of all the data I really need except that of the sons of Samuel and Hilda Peters. I do not have to have the date of the marriage of any of them as I know approximately when the oldest child of each of them was born.

A few years ago I wrote to Hartford, Conn. to see if they had a record of the marriage of Samuel and Hilda Peters and the birth of their sons. They had no record of either. They might have lived in another state before their marriage.

I have written to Mrs. Earl Peters of Wilton, Ontario to see if she knows the name and address of Mrs Wraywells' daughter for I think she would have told me about her if she did for we have corresponded for several years.

I have worked on this genealogy for the past six or seven years and could find no proof of Eli Peters being Samuelson so when I got your letter I was quite elated only to be let down in your second letter

I do have a paper of the history written in longhand and one very similar to it typed but neither one is signed so I am afraid they would not be accepted as documentary.

I am enclosing check for $20.

Sincerely,
Lodie Peters.

Mr. George W. Willett, 11550 Bryant St., 246,
Bucarp, Calif. 92329

Dear sir:

I have your letter of Nov. 27th, which I shall attempt to answer.

Regarding the uncertainty of parents of Susannah Peters, who married Artemas Willett, I have only offered you what came to my file.

1. Mrs. Saywell, deceased, decided that Joseph Peters was a son of Col. John Peters, of Queen's Royal Rangers. This Joseph, born 11 Nov., 1779; died 19 May, 1851, married Jemima Smith, who died 19 April, 1859. Joseph's daughter, born 11 Nov., 1798; died 19 2 Oct., 1840, Susannah, married Artemas Willett.

I am very sure that this Joseph was not the founder of your family. As I may have indicated, I am very confident that the Peters family in my area belong to the Dutch Peters family of New York State. Any further search must be made in that region, if the truth is to prevail.

I am enclosing a written copy of Mrs. Saywell's chart of the Peters family as she wished it, although she could not, or would not attempt to prove it. The family down to the children of John Peters and Mary Banks is as obtained from the Peters Genealogy.

The descendants of all these children are known, except those of Mr. Joseph. Very little is given on his family in the Genealogy. They were called the "Lost Tribe", and could not be traced, although Joseph died in Connecticut.

But Mrs. Saywell, seeking an ancestor of note, claimed that one of Joseph's children was a Samuel. This Samuel is said to have settled in New York State, from which members of his children came to Canada.

From this point Mrs. Saywell, who descends from Eli, a son of Samuel, and a brother of Joseph, who is evidently your ancestor. Mrs. Saywell's pedigree gives only one son of Joseph, namely another Eli.

For the children of Joseph Peters and Joreas Watchman, nee Snider, we must turn to Mrs. Gentry's list of Joseph's children. I have faith in this list, as I am very sure that she obtained it from Joseph's Family Bible. And I am sure that you can claim descent from this line, back to, and including Samuel Peters and Huldah Youngs.

I hope that this letter and the enclosure sets your mind at rest.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr Burling:-

Many thanks for your help
it did help out some.

I thought rather than try to write out my genealogy I could lend you a chart I have, it may help you on some lines you are looking for.

Would you return it to me after you have looked it over.

On the Charlotte Peters (Burley)
I got her data from Richard Bauder her ~~gr~~ son, so you would think he would know his mothers name, I think she may have lived with Freeman, I wrote him <sup>(Richard)</sup> and he had just died.

You can see how the Young come into the family, I was going a long way around to get this data,

On the Howe line, I'm not sure of my grandfathers, fathers name,

On the Snider line I got this from the Archives, I would like to know if Dorcas was married twice

I have reason to believe Samuel Peters b: 1770 married 3 times, Elizabeth Perry.
Lorisa Burley and perhaps he is the same Samuel that married Mary Barley, 12 Jan 1830 my father spoke of one of his relatives who had three wives and 24 children, up to now
I have not found him,

I have about 3 thousand names
which I could add to this chart,
my husband made it years ago for me.

I would love to see all your records they would surely do the heart of a genealogist good. It too is a hobby with me and now since I have got into it why it surely gets more interesting,

I noticed in The Archives your name, and that you had sent in some material.

The other Snider + Noble names I was inquiring for a friend, although I did think they may run into my line,

I had a friend from Regina send me the address of a friend of his in California who has the Snider Pedigree, so I may get what this friend wants there,

Do you belong to the T. C. Loyalist?
 the sec has asked me if I would like to help the regular Genealogist out, so I think after this next meeting I may be quite busy extending some of their lines,

Have you ever been to the Toronto Reference library, I have gotten nearly all my data there, and of course better writing among the family,

I think in the spring I may take a trip to, Camden Co. and also Wilton to try to get more.

If I can help you out at any time I would be glad to do so.
 and any on this Chart Which you think I may have more on why I would be glad to pass it on.

We will be letting you know
 soon about those Cemetery records you promised to copy. I think it would be nice to have, and as soon as we can spare the money we will let you know what we want, I may get much data that would help in this way,

Yours

Mrs Mahala Waywell.

Dear Dr Beerleigh:

I am enclosing a new check.

From what Mrs Earl Peters wrote me about Dorval Peters I doubt very much if you could obtain any information from him. He would not let her have the book to look at when she called on him.

at first I did want you to see him but on second thought I decided it would be foolish of me to go to that expense.

I wish to thank you for your help for you did supply me with many missing dates.

Dear Dr. Burleigh;

I wonder if you know where Samuel Peters, who with his family lived in Ernestown Twp., lived during the war. There are at least two Samuels, one born in Colchester in 1750, the other born in Hebron in 1757. One or both of them saw service in the war but so far I have been unable to find where Samuel, his wife, Hilda, and family lived during the war. Do you have proof that they lived in New York and when they lived there?

Eli would be my great grandfather but I do not have a record of his birth. Neither do I have a record of the birth of his son, Joseph, or of my father, Philip Ball.

I know the entire Peters genealogy from 1634 but I need proof that Eli was Samuel's son and where Samuel lived before going to Canada. I think he saw service in the war but I can't prove it.

I wrote to Utah but that Mrs. Baywell gave them incorrect records for she said that Samuel Peters, Hilda Young and their children were born in Ernestown, Ontario and we know that is incorrect for my father used to tell us about his grandfather living in the United States.

Yours truly,
Sadie Peters

POSTMASTER ERNESTOWN
ONTARIO, CANADA.

Dear Sir:

I am working<sup>on</sup> my Family Tree, and need to know the parents, and Birth place of my 2nd Great Grand father, Joseph Peters who married Jemima Smith.

Their daughter Susannah Peters (my great Grand Mother) was Born in Ernestown Upper Canada, 19 October 1804.

She married My Great grand father in Ernestown 15 January 1832. His name was Artemus Millett. Susannah was his house maid when his first wife was sick and before her death it was agreed that Susannah would marry Artemus and take care of their children.

Artemus and Susannah had four children. Their first child Joseph Millett was my Grand father. Born 22 December 1832, in Ernestown Upper Canada.

Susannah Died 13 October 1840, Ernestown Upper Canada.

Dear PostMaster:

I am enclosing a letter addressed to The Peters family.
I would like YOU to give it to the person that you think would most likely to be able to give me the above needed information.

In my researching I find that there were several Peters living in Ernestown about that time. I am hoping I can make connections with of their descendants.

Thanking you for this favor,

Sincerely yours

Miss Sadie Peters,
Sheldon, Iowa,
U. S. A.

Dear Miss Peters:

I am sorry that I have delayed so long in replying to your recent letters. I have been undecided just what to do for you, mainly because you did not indicate in your first letter that you required documentary proof of ancestry, also because I did not know just what you knew of your ancestry.

To begin, the information which I gave regarding Samuel Peters, Sr., and his sons, Samuel, Joseph and Eli, is taken from the records of Mrs. Mahala Waywell, formerly of 10 Stanton Ave., Toronto, Ont. These records of hers, showing that

Samuel Peters, born Dec. 9, 1750, married Eulalia Youngs, had sons

Joseph, born Oct. 22, 1772

Samuel, born 1770

John, born Sept. 20, 1776

Eli, born Sept. 25, 1774

may be true, but I do not have documentary proof that they are. She may have gotten them from a family bible, but, in her family chart, she did not indicate the authority for these dates. Nor did she furnish any proof that Samuel, Senior, was the son of Joseph Peters and the Burghard woman. Mrs. Waywell is no longer in Toronto. She is said to be living somewhere in the United States with a daughter. For a number of years she was active in Toronto as a Mormon genealogical researcher.

I can certify that the Peters men owned land in this township, as I indicated in item #3 of my letter of recent date.

I do not know the marriage date of Eli Peters and Phoebe Babcock, but there is an official record of the birth of their son Joseph. I do not have the marriage record of this Joseph, but an official document in the Public Archives states that his wife was Rachael Ball.

ELI

Joseph Peters' will was entered for probate in 1846, according to a "List of Wills Entered for Probate." To this I will certify. I do not know the terms of the will, which might be most important to you, if it can be found. The will should be either in Lapanee or Kingston. I could make the search, if you wish.

There is no tombstone for Joseph, who died in 1846, but there is one for his wife, Rachael Ball.

The census records should give proof of the family of Joseph and Rachael, and should give the name of your father. These, of course, would have to be searched.

I did not know, in the beginning, that you required proof, book and page, for what I sent you. In fact, I did not know your relationship to the family.

I might be wise to attempt to find Mrs. Waywell, otherwise, a search might be made here for the bible of Joseph & Rachael, as well as census & will records.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Mary Greatrix

Dear Madam:

I am trying to make a true proven record of my ancestors. My Sister was working on our Beters line and had quit a lot made up and it was printed in our history of the MILLITT'S in America in 1959. Some time later she told me that she had found what she thought was an error and told me that it would have to be rechecked and proven.

She died before she had time to correct the line. Now I am at a loss as to know where to begin.

I found your address and decided to write you and perhaps you would be able to make the right connections for me?

I want the names and dates of birth, death, and marriage of my Great Grand Mother's Parents and progenitors. Her Name is Susannah Peters b Oct. 10 1804, Ernestown Upper Canada. Married 15 Jan. 1832 Artemus MILLITT.

She had been working as a house keeper for Artemus and his first wife. the first wife died and it has been agreed that Susannah would marry Artemus and take care of his children.

Susannah Had four sons. Joseph, Alma, Artemus & William who died young. Joseph is my grandfather.

Our records show Susannah's father was Joseph Peters & her Mother was Jemima Smith.

What we need to know is where they were born and who were their parents. I find several Joseph Peters. One record shows Susannah's parents as Joseph Peters b Oct 28-5 1772 -82 Md Dorcas Watchman 6 July 1795. They has 12 children. Susannah is number 5 her birth and death dates are the same with the two different Parents.

So yousee my problem? I dont know which are her real parents.

If you can help me solve this problem I like to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours

Dear Sir:

I have been working on the loose ends on my PETERS line and still have not found my correct record of the JOSEPH PETERS who is my Great Great Grandfather and father of Susannah Peters who married Artemus Millett my Great Grandfather.

From the information you sent that was on page 12 and the only one written by hand was a record of a Joseph Peters b 25 Oct 1772, d 19 May 1841 Md 6 July 1795 Dorcas Watchman b Sept 7 1779. They had a Daughter Susannah b 19 Oct 1804, d 3 Oct 1840. My family records show our Susannah had the same identical dates.

We have a Joseph Peters b 11 Nov. 1779 Montreal Quebec, Canada. who d 19 May 1851 or 61, Md. Jemima Smith b 1789 Dorchester, Essex, Mass. d 19 Apr. 1859.

Mrs Mahala May Peters Waywell's Main chart #2 shows her records of Joseph and Jemima as we have them but she records Susannah b 11 Oct 1800. d 2 Oct. 1840 Ernestown. Md Artemus Willett. should be Millett.

Last Spring I placed an add in the GENEALOGICAL HERALD; that came out in September. I had ask for help on my Peters Line. I recieved a letter from a Mrs E. J. Twiss. She gave me the Joseph Peters b 22 Oct 1772 who married Dorcas Watchman. He was the son of Samuel Peters and Hulda Young Peters, who settled in Ernestown about 1794. She ask if any of it fit in with my records?

I wrote letters to both Mrs. Mary Grestriz, Belleville, Ont. and Mahala May Peters Waywell 10 Stanton Ave. Toronto, Ont. One had moved the other not claimed. so I cannot get thru that source for an answer. My Sister had collected our information and I do not know from whom. But before she died she told me that she had reasons to believe it was not correct.

I am enclosing copy of the letter I wrote to the above ladies.

I wish to thank you for your help. I never did get a letter from the persons you refered to in Ernestown.

If you can add anything THING to shed more light on my problem I would appreciate it.

The information you sent me on the Willett incidents had no connections other than as you suggested the possibility that the M & W do get confused when not properly written.

Dear Sir:

I wish to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of August 22nd. I thank you for your interest in passing my Petters letter on. Have not received a reply from any one but you.

I am glad that the Postman gave my letter to one who knew the problems involved in Genealogy.

I had a sister who was researching on our family lines, and she had a Mr. Johnson in England working with and for her. They had A Joseph Peters who was the 7th son of a Col John Pepers and Ann Barnet, lined up as our G G Grand father, and this information was printed in a History Of our Millett's in America.

She later did some more checking on her own and found that there was some doubt as to the connection that had been made. She died before she could correct it, but had told me that we would have to get positive proof of the parents of our G G Grandfather Joseph Peters who Married Jemima Smith who were the parents of our Great Grand Mother Susannah Peters who Married Our G Grand Father Artemus Millett. in Ernestown upper Canada Feb. 15, 1832.

Susannah Peters was born in Ernestown 19, Oct. 1804. died 30 Oct. 1840. Her first son Joseph Millett (my grandfather) was born in the same town Dec. 22, 1832.

Now if you can give me as you stated photocopies of any Records of the Peters and Milletts families I will be very happy in deed.

I am enclosing a $25.00 Money order to cover your efforts as explained in your letter. Thanking you for any and all your interests in my behalf I remain,

Dear Dr Burleigh; I have written to the Quaker Archives of Canada. I should have had sense enough to have done that without writing to you for the information for that was all I needed.

I have a letter Kelvin Waywell, son of Mrs Mahala Waywell in which he gives her direct line. He says that Samuel Peters came to Canada as a United Empire Loyalists just prior to the Revolutionary War and settled in Ernestown, Ontario. He hasn't given anything to prove it. He sent me as he said a small segment of a large chart which his father and mother <sup>have</sup> compiled. He wanted to know whether I had anything on the Peters line before 1866. He is quite interested in the Peters line. My direct line is Eli son of Samuel and his is Joseph son of Samuel.

I am not interested in his line. If you care for it, I will send it to you. He lives in Hamilton, Ontario.

P.S. I would surely like to prove to him that his mother is mistaken about Samuel coming to Canada.

Sincerely,
Ladie Peters

Mr Burley:-

I am interested in Genealogy.
of the Peters family. My father was Burton Peters son of James Christopher Peters and Mahala Bauder of Kingston Ont.

I was talking to a Mr Dainard who is interested in the Peters family Genealogy and gave me your address.

The Burley line runs into the Peters line so many times, I wonder if you could let me know just what Burley line you come from.

I am trying to compile the history of the Peters family here in Ontario

Thanking you, I remain

Mrs Mahala Waywell.

Dear Sir.

Some time ago I received a letter from Mrs. M. Maywell of Toronto. which at the time was residing in the States with her daughter. She explained to me in her letter about four British Empire Loyalists John Eli Joseph & Samuel Peters. who came out to Canada and took up land North of Kingston she was wanting to know if I was one of

of the descendants of Eli Peters she asked me to write to her giving her the name of my Father Grandfather & Great Grandfather which I did She then answered my letter and sent me some forms to fill in all the names of Peters that I knew that would link in with this family tree which I did and returned to her last Sept. I have not heard from her since. Last Aug.
Mr. Thomas Peters of Lindsay and myself. visited Dorval Peters at Camden E.

3. Dorval Peters has in his possession, some Bibles and a History of the Peters family back to the year of 1066. He told me to get in touch with you. Will you write to me, and let me know what you have in regard to the Peters family as Thomas Peters & myself are intending to come down to have a talk to you in Easter Holidays when the motoring will be better.
Hoping to hear from you soon.

Dictionary of National Biography

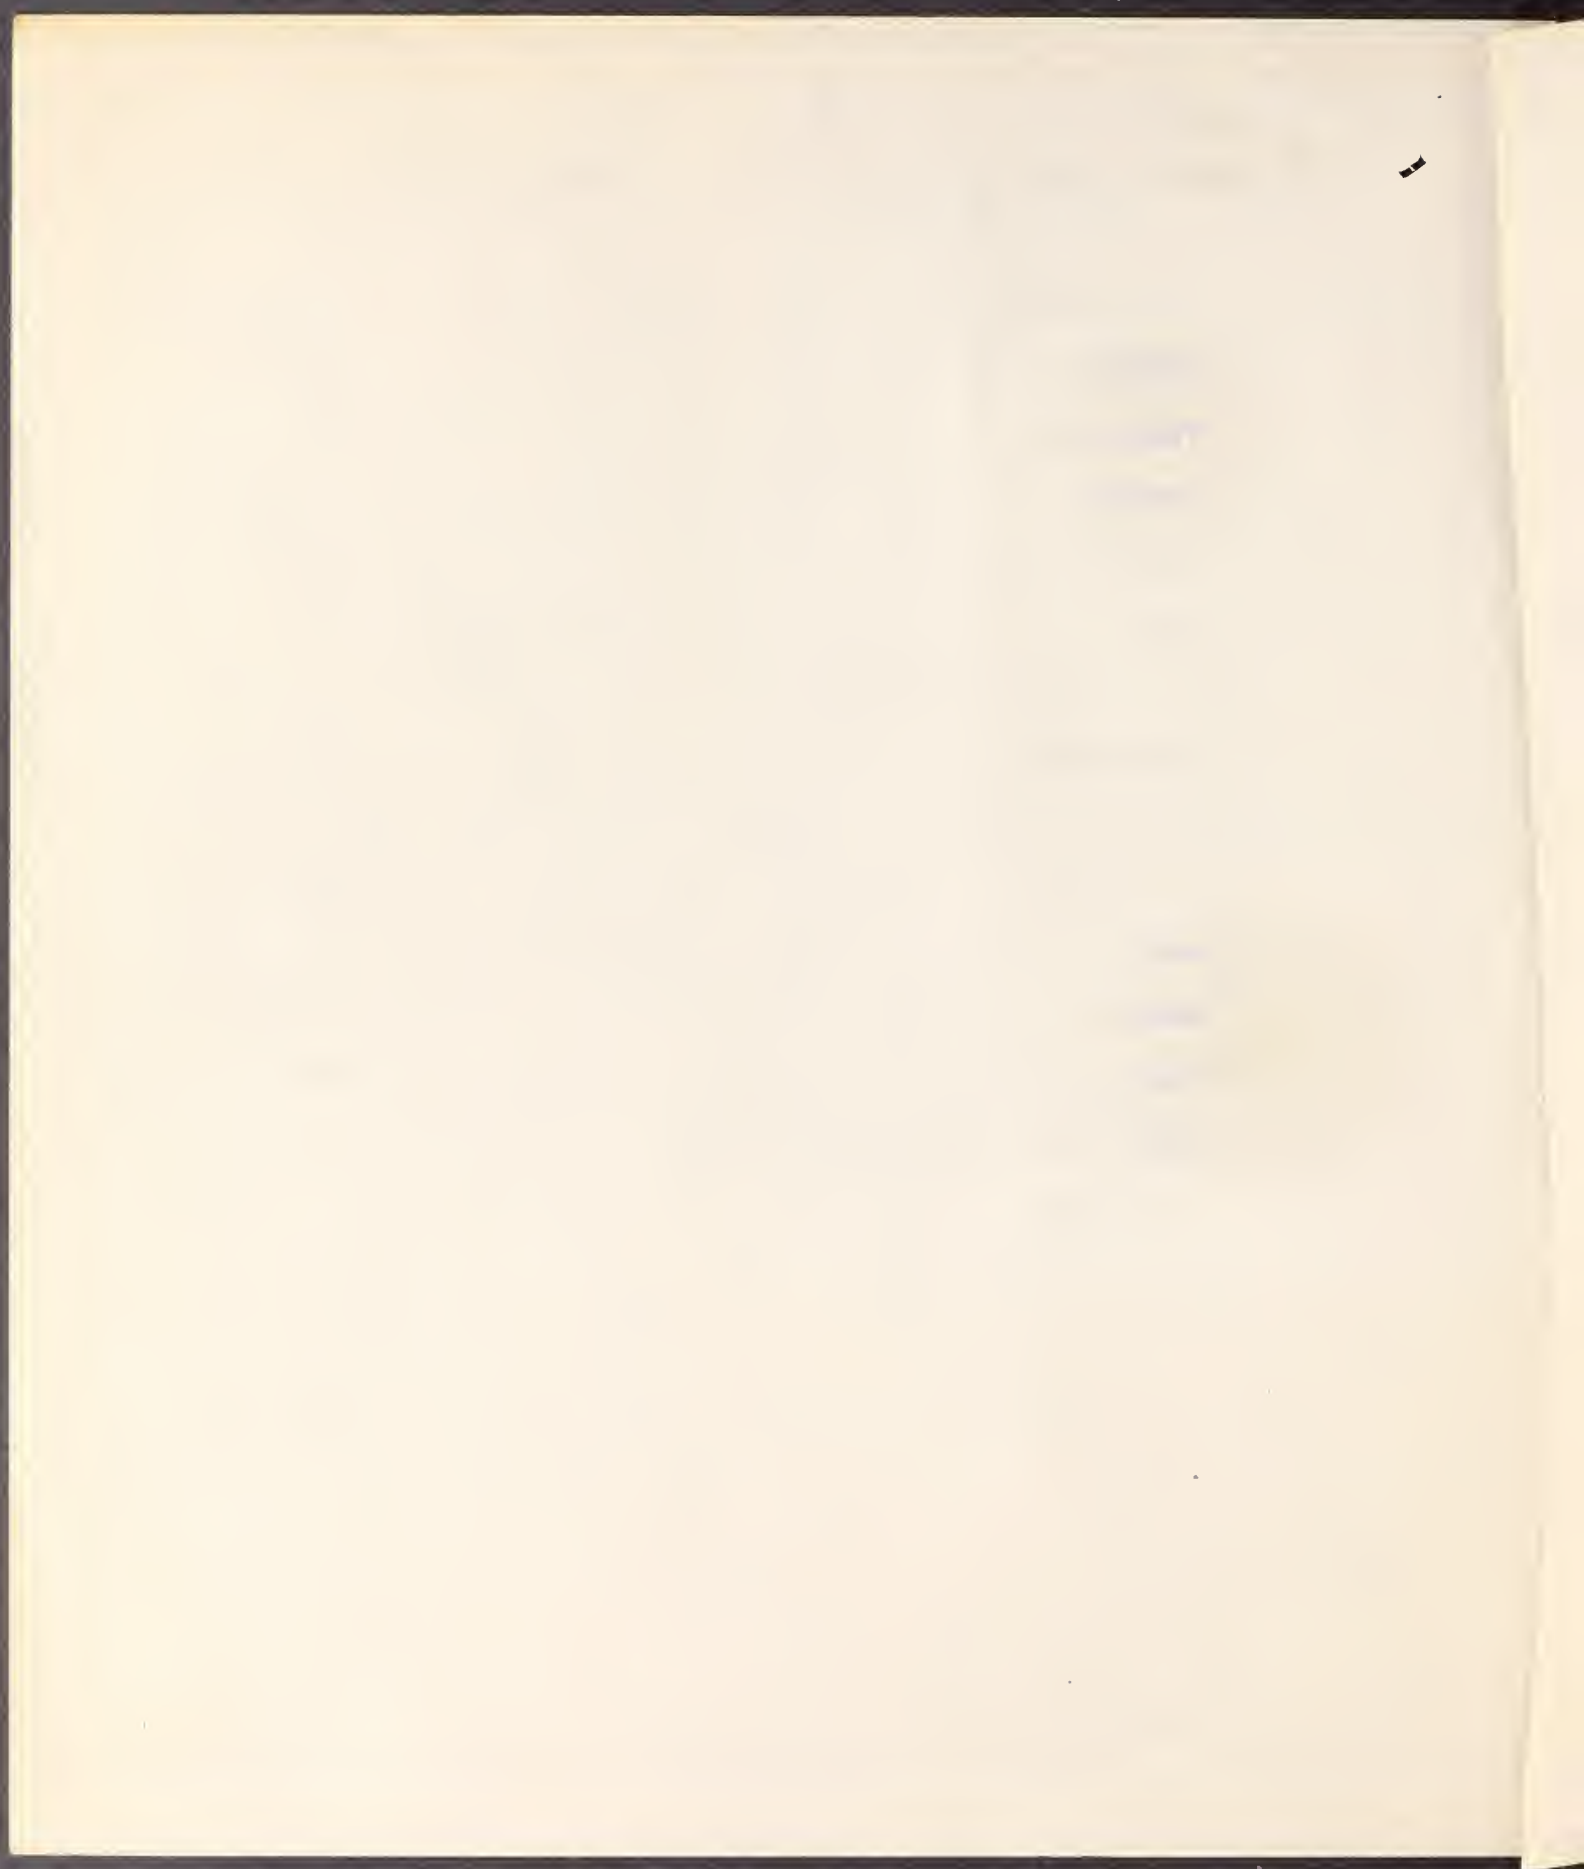

Charles Peters (1690-1774), Hebrew scholar, born in Tregony, Cornwall, on 1 Dec., 1690, eldest child of Richard Peters of that place. His nephew Jonathan was vicar of St.Clements, near Truro.

Hugh Peters (1598-1660), independent divine, baptized 29 June, 1598, was younger son of Thomas Dyckwoode alias Peters, and Martha, daughter of John Treffry of Treffry, Cornwall. Thomas (q.v.) was an elder brother. At 14 he went to Cambridge where he graduated B.A. in 1617-18 as a member of Trinity College, and M.A. in 1622. He married in Essex, about 1624, Elizabeth, widow of Edmund Read, of Wickford, and daughter of Thomas Cooke of Pebmarsh, Essex. This marriage connected him with the Winthrop family, for Edmund Read's daughter Elizabeth was wife of John Winthrop the younger. He removed to Holland in 1629 because of heterodoxy. He went to Boston in Oct., 1635 and on 3 March, 1635, was admitted a freeman of Massachusetts, and on 21 Dec., following became minister of the church at Salem. He returned to England in August, 1641. His first wife died about 1637. He married 2nd Deliverance Sheffield who was still alive in New England in 1677, and was supported by charity. One daughter, Elizabeth, by his second wife, married and left descendants in America.

Thomas Peters (d.1654), puritan divine, son of Thomas Dyckwoode, alias Peters, who married at Fowey, Cornwall, in June, 1594, Martha, daughter of John Treffry of Treffry, and elder brother of Hugh Peters (q.v.) He matriculated from Brasenose College, Oxford, in 1610, and graduated B.A. on 30 June, 1614, M.A. on 6 April, 1625. For many years, probably from 1628, he was vicar of Mylor in Cornwall. He emigrated to America, arriving in New England on 15 July, 1639, according to one historian; but more probably he was driven out of Cornwall by the troops of Sir Ralph Hopton in 1643, and reached America in 1644. He was at Saybrook, Conn., in the summer of 1645, and was afterwards with John Winthrop the younger at the Pequot plantation. When this became the permanent settlement of New London, he was appointed, in May, 1646, its first minister. On the invitation of his old parish in Cornwall he sailed from Boston in Dec., 1646. He returned to England by way of Spain, leaving Nantucket on Dec. 19, 1646, arriving at Malaga on Jan. 19, 1646-7. He again ministered at Mylor, and died there in 1654, in the 57th year of his age. A gravestone in the churchyard records his memory. His wife, who is said to have been a sister of Winthrop, did not accompany him to New England.

John Phelps (fl.1649), regicide, matriculated at Corpus Christi College, Oxford, on May 20, 1636, describing himself as aged 17, and son of Robert Phelps of Salisbury. On Jan. 1, 1648-9 he was appointed clerk-assistant to Henry Elsing, clerk of the House of Commons, and, on Jan. 8, clerk to the high court of justice which sat to try Charles I. In 1650 he was called to the bar at the Middle Temple. From 7th to 14th of May, 1659, he again acted as clerk of the House of Commons. By these employments he made sufficient money to purchase a part of the manor of Hampton Court. He was attainted July 1, 1661, with the other 21 dead regicides. He evaded pursuit, and in 1662 was at Lausanne in company with Ludlow. He was in Holland in 1666. The date and place of his death are unknown.

Ref. Wilson MSS.: "Mercy Beamsley was one day standing at her window to watch the people wading through the trails, which then served as streets, when her attention was attracted by "a young Holland" picking his way through the mud. Andrew Peeters had just arrived, and looking up he saw her watching. He then and there resolved to marry her, it is said.

This version calls Andrew a Dutchman. It is certain that he was an Englishman, though he probably lived, and possibly was born in Holland. He appears in this country as a young man ~~and~~ with sufficient worldly possessions, and a good education, especially for those days, — witness his will written by himself and in which the spelling is quite remarkable and the writing that of a man thoroughly used to the pen."

Mr. Arthur Henry King.

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
Bath,
Ontario.

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Many, many thanks for your efforts in researching out the birth of Wm. or William Henry Peters. Naturally I am sorry you did not find him, but it has given me great peace of mind to know that a good search has been made for him. I enclose my cheque for the $15. you request, with my thanks.

The date of his birth has been family tradition. "He was born during the reign of King Billie," which sets definite limits to the years - and the date we have is Oct. 2, 1838. The family is supposed to have come to Canada from Vermont or Connecticut sometime previous. Perhaps they could have been Methodists. Could you check this out if you are in Toronto, sometime?

My mother died last year, and never did give me an accounting of what you did for her - if anything, so I thought it best to write you on my own. Yes, - Patricia Gooding did belong to me, as you surmised, but she had no answer from you to her letter so there seemed no point in mentioning it.

You say you feel more could be done. May I itemize them here for you and suggest that if you find yourself able to continue searching on this man's ancestry, we would be grateful for whatever you can find - or a negative report should that be the case. You suggest the following:

- 1) Search in St. George's Church, 1820 to 1838 for marriage of Wm. Peters' parents. (Family tradition, again, has it that his father was 'an officer'.)
- 2) Search for burial of a Peters, presumed father of William, about 1846, and the possible marriage of his mother a few years later.
- 3) Search of census records for 1851 in Kingston for the family.
- 4) Locate regiments stationed in Kingston in the 1830's, and look for the names of officers.

Of these four, I favour the last two, first. The first might do if you found only one Peters marriage. (His children were born from 1861 to 1886 and he died in 1911. Mother thought Wm's mother's name was Ann, but latterly she began clutching at straws, so that should be taken with a grain of salt. It MIGHT have been Ann.)

I shall be glad to hear from you again, at your convenience. I shall be in Britain (doing research) from 3 June and returning by Aug. 10th. Sincerely,

Saturday King

The Peters Family.

The family came from Normandy into England with William the Conqueror, 1066, and John Peters was knighted by Henry VIII, and his grandson, John, was created Baron in 1603.

The name is spelled different ways - eldest son, Petre, second, Petre, third, Peter, fourth, Peters, fifth, Petrie.

William Peters was the fourth son of Sir John Petre, born in 1509, Knight of Exeter in Devonshire. He married Elizabeth Treffrey of Fowey in Cornwall, a family of great antiquity, which yields not in gentility to any in Cornwall, and which resides in the same place and house to this day.

William Peters was a merchant of Fowey, and had many sons and daughters by Elizabeth, his wife. Three sons will be named who became eminent Puritan characters in New England.

1. William, educated at Leyden University.
2. Thomas, educated at Oxford.
3. Hugh, born in 1599, was sent to Cambridge in 1613, where he was placed in Trinity College.

Ten Barons have succeeded from Sir John, their names being recorded in the Herald Office in London. John, William, Robert, William, John, Thomas, Robert, Robert James, Robert Edward, Robert William, Thomas and Hugh.

Three sons of William of Fowey, England, being Puritans, migrated to New England in 1634, to avoid the Star Chamber Court and Protestant Inquisitions of England.

The Rev. Thomas settled at Saybrook, Connecticut, 1634, the first clergyman and Englishman that arrived in that colony. He founded an academy at Saybrook which bore his name until that academy became a University named Yale College in consequence of a large benefaction by Mr. Yale, formerly Governor of a British Colony, a zealous Puritan and native of Wales.

The Peters Family.

Hugh Peters was a minister in Salem, Mass., for several years, and returned to London when he was executed. He died protesting that he was not guilty of the crimes of which he was accused. Hugh Peters, one of the trustees and Pillars of the new Harvard University at Cambridge, Mass., and Thomas Peters, his brother, being principal and founder of Yale, shows they were not enemies to learning and godliness, seeing that these two Universities have taught the arts and sciences with as great precision as Cambridge and Oxford in England, and they were coadjutors to their wise and pious brethren in establishing a grammar and an English school in each town in New England, which establishment to this day ministers to the benefit of morality, learning and godliness in the U. S.

William, son of William in Fowey, who came to New England in 1634--his ashes are resting in the church at Andover, Mass. His sons were John, Andrew, Thomas, William, Samuel and Joseph.

As Hugh only had one daughter, and no sons, and Rev. Thomas no child, all those of the name of Peters have their descent from William, Esq., fourth son of William of Foway, Eng. He bought of Rev. Mr. Blackstone the whole peninsula on which the city of Boston stands, but he was not permitted to hold it by those men called "newcomers." However, he held a share a share of it and a share in ownership of Andover and in other towns. He did much toward the settlement of Andover and in building a meeting house and a house for the minister, Rev. Mr. Fry. He lived to an old age and died in Andover.

This William of Andover had six sons, ~~Benjamin~~ Benslee, Samuel, John, William, Andrew and Joseph, and two daughters. His grandson, William, married Mary Russell, and by her had one son, John, and when he was eleven days old, his father, who was captain of the troop of horses, was killed in battle at Andover by the Indians and French, 1696.

John was educated in Boston where he married Mary, grand-daughter of Gen. Thomas Harrison, who was executed by Gen. Monk and Charles II. in 1660, for being one of the judges of Charles I. John moved from Boston in 1717, and settled in Hebron, Conn., and there had by Mary, his wife, six sons and four daughters. He was Colonel in Service of America.

The Peters Family.

Col. John Peters was born in 1718, and had a son, John Peters, A. M., born in 1740. He was a Colonel in British Service, married Ann Barnett. By her he had one daughter, Ann, and six sons, John, Andrew, B. Samuel, Henry, Joseph and Edmund Fenning.

Col. John Peters (Jr.) died in London in 1793, leaving his widow and children in Cape Breton.

Andrew settled in Bradford, Va., a representative in the General Assembly and Magistrate. He married a great grand-daughter of John Bliss A. W. Rector of Hebron and of Literary fame. He quitted the Puritan Church and founded the Church of England in Hebron 1637.

Samuel married Catherine Grant and had sons and daughters. Was Controller of Customs in Sydney, C. B.

Edmund Fenning went to Boston.

Miss Judith M. Nash,
Apt. 5, 1 Brunsville Road,
Kaposoville, Ontario.

Dear Miss Nash:

I confess to a great interest in anyone who desires to know more about his, or her, ancestry. I have been involved in this phase of our history for many years. As a result, I have more than 100 files dealing with that many local families. Naturally, I have two files on the Peters families of this area, and I know a great deal about their origins.

One thing which I found out in these years is that time, money, travel, time spent in libraries, patience and persistence are all necessary in such a search. And, there will be many loose ends to which there is no answer.

There was a book published many years ago. I do not know if it is to be found. A dear old lady from a town in Wisconsin copied a good deal for me about 1936. She did it in pencil which is difficult to read. The two files in my library are available to you whenever you are some south, but cannot be taken out of the house. These carry the family down to Capt. John Peters who lived near Oshawa. It notes that he had six unnamed children. It would be your problem to search these out, in church records, cemeteries, land records, etc., etc., etc.

In the past I have been asked to supply information on families. This I have done, sometimes xerox copies on my records, with a letter of explanation, requiring a fee for service. I do this, as I am now 77, and getting tired of letters and travelling. So, in the years to come, and I am still alive, should you get stuck, give me a call. My fee for furnishing fifteen or twenty pages is twenty-five dollars.

Good luck to you. Do not give up.

Sincerely,

MARY JANE PETERS

Following an illness of six weeks, there passed away in Campbellford, Mary Jane Peters in her 74th year. The deceased was a native of Sydenham, and was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Peters. Her previous residence had been in Newburgh where she was a member of the United Church and was also a member of the Woman's Association of the Newburgh United Church. The remains were brought to the Wartman Funeral Home and the service was held in the United Church in Newburgh and was conducted by Rev. H. B. Herrington. Interment took place in the Newburgh Cemetery. Surviving are William and Earl of Oshawa. Howard of Campbellford, Mrs. Leo Trepanier (Muriel) of Detroit, Mrs. Victor Knowles (Jessie) of Detroit, and Mrs. Bruce Asselstine (Helen) of Selby.

Dear Dr. Burleigh: I wrote to Salt Lake City for information on the Orlers family and they sent me the inclosed sheet which state that Samuel Orlers' children were born in Canada but I am fairly sure that this is incorrect. Could you verify this in the Ontario Historical records? I wrote to the Society but they do not do research work.

Are the names given in the New-England Loyalists Lists in the Ontario Historical Records?

Do they have a record of when Samuel Orlers came to Canada with his family?

I have been trying to find where Samuel Orlers lived during the War. If he lived in Canada I might as well give up my search.

Dear Dr. Burleigh -

Some long years ago, my husband & I called on you to try & add to our Peters genealogical records. You advised us at that time that if we could locate my great grandfather Peters, you could then carry us back many generations. We sent you an old English bed warmer, as our "thank-you".

after much correspondence, I have located an Ensign (later raised to Lieut) William B. Peters who was in the Kingston Barracks at the very time my grandfather was born there.

The stories of the two men, seem to be identical. Lt Peters went to Conn. to attend to business & was seized & held for court-martial, according to the records at Attawa.

My father's brother told me that his Granddad faced Court Marshal because he wanted to remain Royalist. Uncle said his dad & a friend escaped on a horse & had a dog. Horse was shot from under them as they swam the river. The friend & horse were lost, his granddad gained the Canadian side, by swimming it, with the dog.

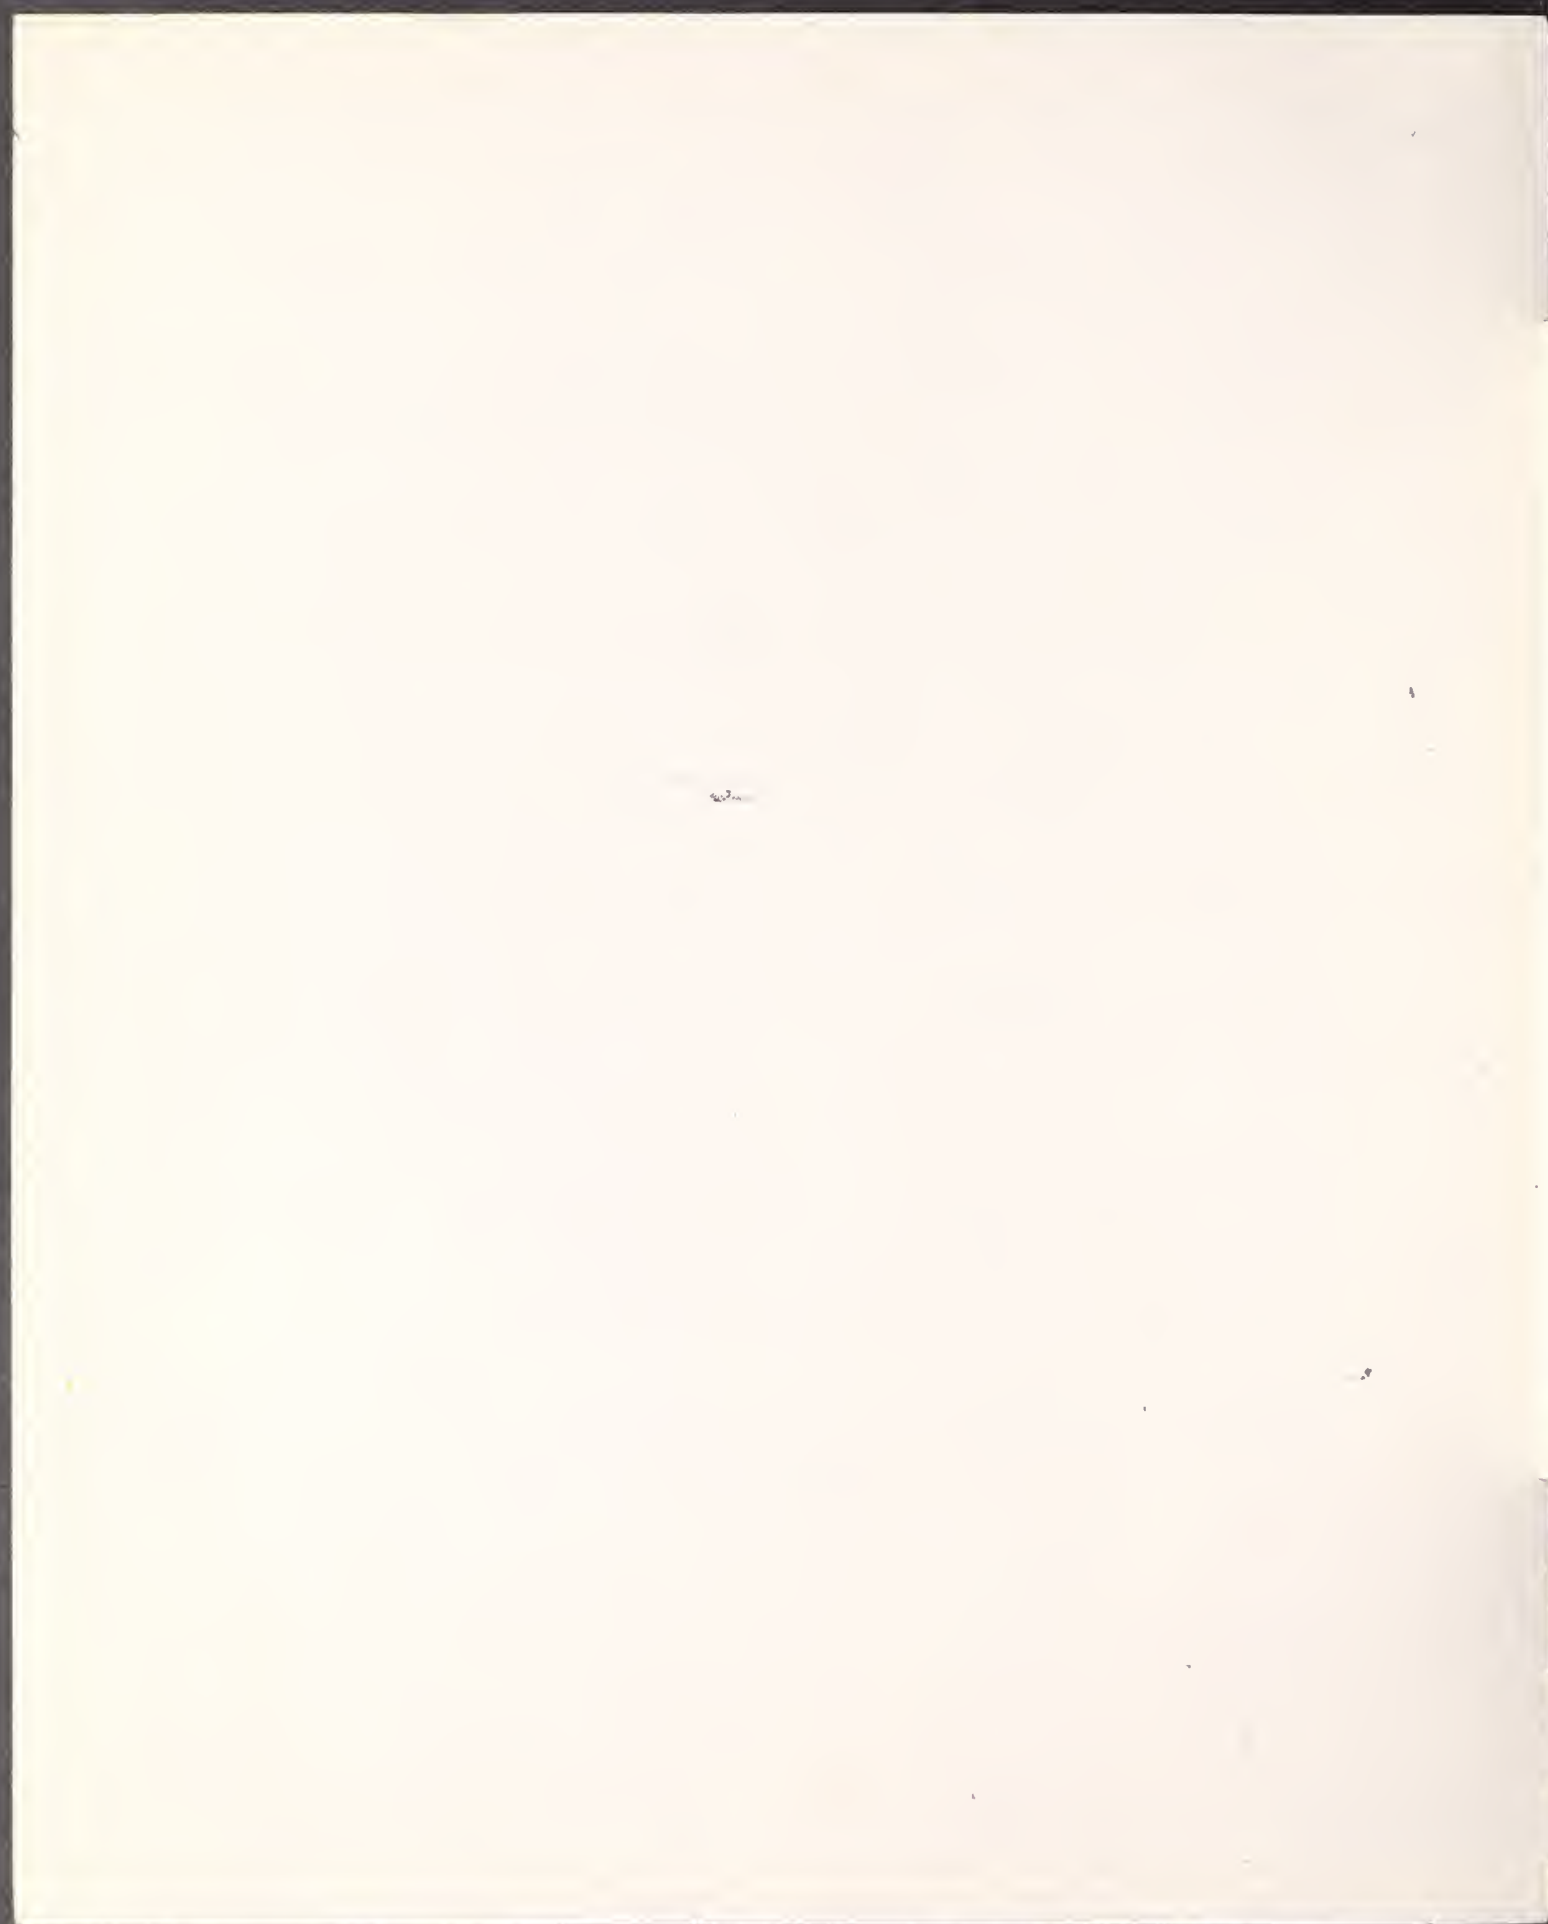

Would you please advise me what the costs would be, to follow the generations back. Three years ago my daughter came to see me & she has assumed the job of family historian. Just now she is off to Scotland in an attempt to trace my husband's mother's line.

My gr. grandfather (acc. to Uncle) had a large grant of land. Archives say Lt. Wm. B. Peters was granted 1200 acres & right to keep servants.

Dear Miss Peters:

I have received your several letters, but have delayed replying for several reasons. Firstly, I apparently was waiting for the return of your check through my bank. Secondly, there appeared to be no good reason to discuss further your ancestry, since I had stated that only Mrs. Waywell could supply the definite information which you desired. As I told you, my information was based on her deductions, and that only she could furnish the authority for her statements. As I stated previously, I did not know her present address, not whether or not she was still alive. All I knew was that she had gone to the U. S. to live with a daughter. To this I can add the fact that Mrs. Waywell belongs to the Church of the Latter Day Saints (Mormon), and very likely their headquarters has a copy of her findings.

As you will find enclosed, I am returning your check, as requested. It was only when your explanatory letter arrived that I realized that it was your bank which had been robbed of two million dollars.

According to the tenor of your letter, I understand that you are willing to commission me to visit Orval Peters at Camden East, to see what further proof can be obtained. I shall, therefore, call on him, unless you inform me otherwise. Camden East is about fifteen miles from Bath. I do know that he is not the type to do expert investigation. But he may have proof, in the form of bible records, or Mrs. Waywell's notes, which may be of value. Anyhow, I shall go at the first opportunity, and will forward the results.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Dr Beerleugh; I have not heard a word from you since your last letter of December first. I am wondering if you received my check written December 7th. I would like to send you another check when the old one is returned so will you let me know if you received it. I like to pay my bills.

I finally found Dorval Peters address. It is Camden East Village, Ontario. He has the book "The Rev. Hugh Peters" by Rev. Samuel Peters. It may give the information we want. The book is also in the Congressional Library, at Washington, D.C. Could you get any information from either of these sources?

I am willing to pay you more for proof of Samuel Peters sons.

Dear Dr Burleigh:

I presume you have read of the closing of the Sheldon National Bank on which I gave you a check dated December 7th. That check has not been cashed. It is being held some place along the line. If you have it and will return it to me I will send you another check.

I hope you are still trying to get the proof of the names of Samuel Peters' sons. I wonder if you were able to locate Mr. Baywell or Mrs. Gordon Stork.

Were you able to get any information from that Horval Peters of whom I wrote. I think he is a "strange duck" altho I have never heard from him.

Dear Sir:-

Received your letter. Thank you so much. I think the enclosed information is all the dates I have.
Perhaps my brother knows more but I doubt it.
I would like to attend the March 6. meeting.
but I doubt if I'll be here. We have never been south and we are sort of planning to go to Florida for a few weeks. Our son will take care of our mail until we return. We may go in two weeks time.

I have a very old beaded sash. Also a pair of fine net gloves, made without fingers, & an open thumb.
Also a pair of glasses in a metal frame, maybe tin.
Once in an old museum I saw a pair just like them in Virginia City-Montana. We went to the Pacific coast this summer. This is the size of the glasses. They are in a wooden case like a straight razor case.

Yours sincerely

Mary Gentry.

PETERS—CRONK

A very pretty autumn wedding was solemnized at 3 o'clock, September 9th, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. William White, when the Rev. Archdeacon Coleman united in marriage Florence Olive Cronk, and Mr. John Wesley Peters. The fair young bride looked very girlish in a pretty wedding gown of challenge blue flat crepe and carried a shower bouquet of roses. She was unattended. Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served. The living room was beautifully decorated with gladiolias and asters. Afterwards a reception was held when a host of friends of the bride and groom availed themselves of the opportunity to wish the young couple best wishes in their new life. The many beautiful gifts which Mr. and Mrs. Peters received showed the high esteem in which they are held. The out-of-town guests were the bride's father, Mr. Herb Cronk, Halloway, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale and daughter, of Belleville.

—Sep. 12, 1931

opened their splendid home to a large number of friends, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jeffrey (former Mrs. Olive Snider) whose marriage took place recently. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by the guests and during the evening the bride and groom were made the recipients of some very fine gifts.

Mrs. Frank Patterson continues to improve and it is expected that she will be able to leave the hospital next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grant of Flint Mich. are visiting friends here and at Portsmouth.

Mr. J. Pettet, of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis of New Jersey, Mrs. Joseph Lewis and son of Camden East and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ellerbeck of Westport, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch McLean.

MR. AND MRS. C. N. PETERS, 375 Division street, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary, Tuesday, are shown reading a letter of congratulation they received from Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent.

Nov 30 1949

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus N. Peters Married 60 Years Ago Tuesday

A MESSAGE of congratulation from Their Majesties King George and Queen Elizabeth was received by Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus N. Peters, 375 Division street, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Peters were hosts to many friends who called to extend their congratulations.

Also received was a message from the Prime Minister of Canada, as well as from friends in the United States and Canada. Many gifts were received including a cheque from the Kingston and District Agricultural Society with which Mr. Peters has been associated for many years, as foreman of the grounds during the annual fairs.

Mr. Peters, who was born in 1870, is a son of the late William Peters and Lydia Jackson, and Mrs. Peters, the former Mary Lee, is a daughter of Calvin Lee and Priscilla Freeman of Yarker. They were married Nov. 29, 1889, in Yarker by Rev. Mr. Depew, Methodist minister.

* * *

THEY have four children living. They are Mrs. Sadie Holland, Mrs. Arthur Embury, (Illa); Mrs. Nicholas Timmerman, (Flora), and Kenneth C. Peters. One daughter, Luella, died in infancy. They have eight grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

At the time of their marriage the snow was so deep that the roads were completely covered in and when they drove to Mrs. Peters' sister's home, which was only three miles away, they travelled over the top of the fences and took hours to get there.

Mr. Peters, for many years, travelled for the J. C. Connolly firm of Yarker, selling pianos, buggies, wagons, cutters, fur coats and farm implements, in Frontenac and Lennox and Addington counties. Following the death of Mr. Connolly, the Connolly firm ceased to operate. Mr. Peters managed the Union Hotel in Sydenham for a few years before moving to Kingston where he was employed by Van Luven Bros., Ford dealers, Kingston, as a salesman until he retired 15 years ago. Mr. Peters has been a life-long Liberal, and he and his wife attend the United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters are active and are enjoying good health.

MRS. KEITH HUTCHINSON, MBE, dancing with Field Marshal Earl Wavell at St. Andrew's Ball, held in Montreal recently.

ly silent affair because of their professed inability to speak English — I had leisure to notice again the extreme youth of these officers, not one of whom seemed older than 17 or 18.

When I left, I was told that I would be welcome to return when their commander came back from Canton. When would the commander return? Ah, alas, they did not know. But he would be glad to talk with me when he did come.

Shortly after this, I went to Taipo, at another point on the frontier of the British territory, and thence to the town of Shataukok. The drive through the British area was more interesting and more significant than my brief stay in the Communist-held township.

For along the road, we passed jeeps, tanks, trucks and encampments; Gurka troops of the British army swung along in close formations. And as my eye followed them between houses, I suddenly noticed how many of the private as well as public buildings seemed to have blossomed with Red flags. And I recalled the many Communist publications freely sold on newsstands in Hong Kong. Also I thought of the talk I had not long before with two British sailors of the Royal Navy in Hong Kong: both were accredited members of the British Communist party.

1776 Sept Samuel was in the 12th Regiment, Capt. Wells Co., as drummer and marched to West Chester. 1778, Aug. 2 to Sept. 12, he was drummer in Capt. Rudd's Co., under Col. Chapman, under Brig. Gen. Tyler, under Gen. Sullivan and engaged in the attempt to dislodge the British at Newport (Battle of Rhode Island, Aug. 29, 1778.) He was also in service from Jan. 1, 1781 to Dec. 31, 1781.

End of what I copied from the above book in 1954. When I was in Washington, D.C.

There was another Samuel Peters born in Connecticut in 1757. Part of the above service belongs to him as his wife Hannah Trumbull applied for a pension in 1841. This means we have to find where Samuel and family lived during the War in order to prove that he was still living in the states.

Dear Sir: I just now read your letter again and note that you ask if I had proof that Samuel was Joseph Peters' son.

The records at Helson show that Samuel Peters, son of Joseph was born Dec. 9, 1750

Colchester vital records Vol. 1, page 150

In the book "Peters of New England" I found that Samuel married Hilda Young but the names of their children are not given.

Recently I received a letter from my niece of Alexandria, Virginia. She found a book - "The Rev. Hugh Peters by Rev. Samuel Peters which says that Samuel Peters married Hilda Young and had three children but she gave the name of only one of the children and that was Joseph so I still did not have that Eli was the son of Samuel.

In 1947 I wrote to a cousin of mine in New York and she sent me a type written sheet giving the entire genealogy of the Peters family. She is not living today and I have never been able to find out where she got her material. I have another paper written in long hand by an aunt of mine and dated 1909 which is very similar to the first paper but I do not think these would be accepted as documentary proof as they are not signed.

Does this answer your inquiry?

Respectfully,

Ladie Peters.

P.S. The author Rev Samuel Peters" is a son of John Peters which would make him an uncle of Samuel Peters of 1750.
a book which I have follows the line of John Jr. and the Rev. Samuel Peters.

Dear Sir; The Secretary of the Ontario Historical Society said that you might be able to give me some information on the Peters family. I will give you the dates I have. I do not know when any of them were married or when they died and that is what I need.

Joseph Peters was born at Thorpe, Ontario Dec. 19, 1805. He married Rachael Ball. <sup>b. 1806; O.S. 27 Feb 1834</sup>
His father was Eli Peters and Eli married Abbie Babcock (no O.S.).

Samuel Peters and his wife, Hulda Young Peters, were born in 1750 at Helbron, Conn. in United States. They moved to Canada with their sons, Samuel, Joseph, Eli and John about 1800.

The Registrar's office in Napoleon show that Samuel Peters owned Lot 26, Con. 6 Twp. Ernestown and that later this same land was owned by Eli and then Joseph Peters.

I do not know when Abbie Babcock or Rachael Ball were born.

If you can find any information, I am willing to pay you for your trouble.

Yours truly,
Sadie Peters
